MONDAY WINE CLUB

We're pleased to report that times have changed and that our beloved steak-loving Malbecs are not making the journey over snuggled up next to any stinky stuff.

THE GUANO KING

GUANO, (NOUN):
THE ACCUMULATED
EXCREMENT OF SEABIRDS
AND BATS.

To fertilise a 19th century agricultural boom in Europe tonnes of this high-nitrates good stuff were shipped from remote South American islands to ... Liverpool.

One man who made it BIG was self-appointed 'Colonel' John Thomas, who became known as the 'The Nitrate King'. When guano deposits started to dwindle, he expanded his repertoire. Using the same shipping routes, he joined forces with entrepreneurial brothers William and John Lockett to create Liverpool's first and only

GUANO & WINE IMPORTERS

On Mondays, we encourage you to bring your own bottle of wine and we'll cork it for only £5.

There's no tricky initiation test to join the club, just come armed with a bottle (or two or three...) and you're in.

For maximum value bring a Nebuchadnezzar of Champagne or a Balthazar of Burgundy - there will still only be a £5 corkage fee on each.
