Difference Coffee Company

Hawaii Kona, Buddha's Cup, United States £5

This high mountain grown coffee was sourced from multiple award winning estate 'Buddha's Cup' in Kona, Hawaii. One of the world's premier coffee growing regions. Well-balanced, with medium body and bright acidity, 'Buddha's Cup' is known for its fruity cup with hints of cherry, chocolate, and black tea.

Blue Mountain, Gold Cup, Grade 1, Jamaica £15

Is regarded amongst the most exquisite and sought after coffees in the world, having established an iconic reputation for coffee excellence. The Blue Mountain's ideal conditions produce beans which are noted for their floral aromas, mild yet complex flavour, a lack of bitterness and a creamy, almost chocolaty taste.

Wild Kopi Luwak, Grand Reserve, Indonesia £25

The Indonesian civet cat selects only the most perfectly ripened berries, a process of meticulous inspection and one of the reasons why wild kopi luwak is so prized. The consumption of these berries begins a unique process that uses the luwak's natural enzymes to remove any bitterness from the bean. This results in a coffee full and heavy in body, yet low in acidity, with chocolate and caramel undertones.
