REVERY WINE ON TAP

We have chosen to pour two wines on tap, rotating the selection with the seasons to always give you the best possible choice. All of our wines are kegged at the winery, by the winemaker and as the keg is such a stable format, the wines are a much closer representation of what they tasted like when they left the winery - when the winemaker deemed them perfect for sharing! Please do ask a team member for any more information on the wines available today.
