FINE WINES

We love our wine and when it comes to matching Indian cuisine or Chinese cuisine with wine many of us can get confused. Add the complexity of Indo-Chinese cuisine and it could just be too much, so let us help you.

In general when it comes to Indo-Chinese cuisine, white wine is safe although the complexity of sweetness in rosés can really help with spice. When it comes to red we like to focus on the lighter red as tannin can exaggerate spice beyond comfortable. In India it's not unusual to find the red wine in the fridge, so we have a chilled Australian red served at 4 degrees - perfect for our flaming Chicken dish.

FINE WINES

WHITE

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Blanc, Domaine de la Janasse, Rhône, France 160
 2020 - Ripe and rounded, with citrus and tropical fruit on the nose followed by a mouthful of apricot and pineapple, but a dry finish.

Chassagne-Montrachet Domaine Bachelet-Ramonet, Burgundy, France 170
 2021 - The family's Chassagne-Montrachet has lovely mineral and flint notes in the nose and mouth, lots of freshness, white flowers, pure delicate citrus and pear fruit, framed by richness and acidity.

Puligny-Montrachet Les Meix Olivier Leflaive, Burgundy, France 210
 2021 - Bright gold in colour with flashes of green. The nose shows orchard fruits, perfumed by white flowers. On the palate this wine is a perfect balance of minerality and opulent, creamy fruit.

RED

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Tardieu-Laurent, Rhône, France 145
 2021 - A wonderfully complex nose: tobacco leaf, leather, raspberry, menthol, blood orange and undergrowth. The palate is exactly as you hope it will be, open-weave in texture, slightly bloody and iodine-driven, with dried garrigue herbs complementing the savoury red berries.

Château La Grave a Pomerol, Bordeaux, France 170
 2016 - Delectable, decadent raspberry fruit aromas and a succulent palate, framed by fine tannin.

Château Bourgneuf, Pomerol, Bordeaux, France 180
 2017 - The nose is smokily dark with a linseeded, creamy fresh black fruit perfume. The palate is richly and powerfully extracted and just when you think that its power is at the limit of comfort, the freshness and charm of the vintage lifts it back into the pleasure zone.

Pommard Domaine Cyrot-Buthiau, Burgundy, France 180
 2019 - This young Pommard is true to type: muscular in structure showcasing delicate fruit and a pure mineral core. Beautifully made Pommard Domaine Cyrot-Buthiau offers a classic expression of this high-quality Burgundy appellation.

Château Rocheyron Grand Cru St-Emilion, Bordeaux, France 245
 2011 - Jet-plum-ruby, bright and intense to a tight, bright rim, this offers black and red fruit on the nose. Earthy and mineral, with citrus notes - bitter orange - and opulent cherry liqueur, this has a multi-layered complexity and sensuality.
