

The London Season

The Foliage Lounge
at The Biltmore Mayfair

Welcome to The London Season Afternoon Tea at The Foliage Lounge.

Afternoon tea, a tradition that began in 19th-century London, has long been a symbol of sophistication. At The Biltmore Mayfair, we bring this cherished ritual to life with a new lens — celebrating the great occasions of the English summer that have defined the Season for generations.

Royal Ascot. Wimbledon. Silverstone. And the art of dressing for all of it.

This limited-edition afternoon tea, created in partnership with Bicester Village, tells the story of a summer lived beautifully — from the anticipation of preparation to the quiet pleasure of the reward. Each element of the menu is an expression of a defining moment of the Season, crafted by our pastry team with the same commitment to luxury, refinement, and impeccable service that defines every experience at The Foliage Lounge.

We invite you to settle in, explore the menu, and savour the Season.
