O U R D R I N K S

Kai Mayfair opened in 1993 with the aim of revealing the diversity of Chinese food in a pleasing and comfortable environment where service is attentive and warm but never pompous or judgmental.

The following beverages have been selected for their compatibility with various dishes on our menu, because of the value they offer or simply because they are delicious. All of the drinks under the heading 'by the Glass' have been carefully selected because they compliment most or in some cases all of the diverse and challenging flavours our food has to offer.

Otherwise this list is presented in drink categories and in the general order each is usually consumed during a meal with a few exceptions. To name just a few, the sparkling sake we have would probably be more appropriate with or as dessert and the whiskies Glengoyne 10 and Clynelish 1992 are a brilliant 'food and wine' match with our hot foie gras dish that would most likely be enjoyed in the middle of your meal.

Allow us therefore, to offer to you new experiences in Chinese food by ordering something unfamiliar or different. After all, a meal with no surprises is a culinary experience lost and a potentially memorable dining occasion wasted.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Bernard Yeoh". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Bernard" and the last name "Yeoh" clearly distinguishable.

TEA

W H I T E T E A

Out of all the different types of tea, white teas contain the least amount of caffeine. The Fuding Silver Needle is a light tea with refreshing bursts of fresh cucumber and honeydew melon.
