COCKTAILS

Alcohol was prohibited in USA between 1920-1933, this paved the way for cocktail culture to bloom. Alcohol made in secret tended to taste awful, so people began mixing it with anything and everything to make it more enjoyable.

TALL

-  Bloody Mary £6.50
A true classic: spicy tomato juice balanced with fresh lemon juice & Chase vodka, made special using fresh horseradish.
-  Long Island Iced Tea £8.00
A refreshing combination of 5 different spirits with a hint of lemon and a splash of cola.
-  Perfect Storm £9.00
Put a beast in your belly using The Kraken spiced rum, fresh lime juice and Angostura bitters brought to life with ginger beer.
-  Mojito £7.50
A refreshing and minty combination of Bacardi rum & fresh lime juice, lengthened with soda.
-  Irish Coffee £6.00
Jameson's Irish whiskey, double cream and coffee is the original drink that bridged the gap between caffeine & alcohol.
-  Aperol Spritz £7.00
This classic aperitif uses fizzy soda and Prosecco to balance out the bitterness from the Aperol. A truly refreshing combination.

SHORT OVER ICE

-  Negroni £7.50
Bitter, dry but very tasty: Little Bird Gin, Campari and Martini Rosso create the perfect aperitif.
-  Old Fashioned £8.00
