STEAKS

Our beef comes from Tim Johnson and his family at Stokes Marsh Farm in Coulston at the foot of the Salisbury plain, where the Aberdeen Angus heifers freely roam the green fields all year round. They are grass-fed, topped up with some brewers grain from Butcombe Brewery, and drink from the stream that runs through the land. The entire journey from farm to butcher is less than 10 miles, so there is minimum carbon footprint. We are proud to serve it here at Mad Swans.
