A ROYAL PARK

A journey through the Royal Parks

Hyde Park and Kensington Gardens together form a giant oasis of 636 acres and are located just opposite the Four Seasons Hotel London at Park Lane.

Here at AMARANTO Restaurant & Bar we combine Italian flair with English style. There is no better way to do so than by taking you on a journey through the Royal Parks.

Our journey takes you from well-known to hidden places, from familiar to new flavours. Simply open all your senses and our Head Bartender Ivan Arena and his team will do the rest.

Just think about: Walnut, Chestnut, Apple, Quince, Elderflower, Water, Mint, Spearmint, Lavender, Marjoram, Red and White Clover, Peach, Cherry, Plum, Black Mulberry, White Mulberry, Sweet Violet, Currant, Rosemary, Blackberry, Wild Strawberry and Hibiscus to only name a few.

It's starting to look a lot like...

... Winter around the Albert Memorial

The Albert Memorial is located in Kensington Gardens opposite the Royal Albert Hall. It is one of London's most ornate monuments designed by George Gilbert Scott, unveiled in 1872 in honour of Prince Albert, Queen Victoria's husband. The Albert Memorial in Kensington Gardens is one of the grandest high Victorian gothic extravaganzas anywhere.

Inspired by the four marble figures representing Europe, Asia, Africa and America that stand at each corner of the memorial we have crafted cocktails showcasing The Holiday Season in each of these parts of the world.

AMARANTO'S Negronis in The Italian Gardens

The Italian Gardens is a 150-year-old ornamental water garden located on the north side of Kensington Gardens near Lancaster Gate. It is believed to have been created as a gift from Prince Albert to his beloved Queen Victoria.

It consists of four main basins with central rosettes, carved in Carrara marble, and the famous Tazza Fountain. The surrounding urns have five main designs - the Swan's breast, woman's head, ram's head, dolphin and oval.

The Negroni Cocktail was created between 1919 and 1921 at the Casoni Bar in Florence, Italy. The bartender Fosco Scarselli fortified an 'Americano', the favourite aperitif of his regular guest Count Camillo Negroni, with gin.

The Peter Pan Statue

Cocktails inspired by a place that screams magic and fairy tales.

An experience for all your senses.

The Peter Pan Statue is located in Kensington Gardens to the west of the Long Water and features squirrels, rabbits, mice and fairies climbing up to Peter, who is stood at the top of the bronze statue. J.M. Barrie lived close to Kensington Gardens and published his first Peter Pan story in 1902, using Kensington Gardens for inspiration.
