YEAR GLASS

Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru “Les Referts”, Jean-Marc Boillot, France

2013 £31

From a family with extensive vineyard land, Jean-Marc served as winemaker to Puligny négociant Olivier Leflaive Frères in the 1980s before setting up on his own. His holdings, split equally between Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, occupy choice Côte de Beaune premier cru sites in Pommard, Volnay, Meursault and Puligny. These aromatic, strongly fruity wines are immensely popular with France's 3-star restaurants, illustrating the best of the modern winemaking idiom. Finely-crafted, richly-textured whites receive extensive lees beating and generous new oak

Chateau D'Yquem “Lur Saluces”, Sauternes, France *a glass is 75ml

1998 £45

Yquem is located on the highest hill in Sauternes and enjoys the best growing conditions in the whole appellation. The 110-hectare vineyard is planted with 80% Sémillon and 20% Sauvignon Blanc. Only fully botrytized fruit is picked by the 150 highly skilled pickers and yields are so low that each vine produces only one glass of wine.

Château Corton Grancey, Maison Louis Latour, Burgundy, France

2006 £31

The Latour family bought Chateau Corton Grancey in 1891. This wine, produced by Maison Louis Latour, is unique and exclusive. It is a blend of four areas of Domaine Latour Corton Grand Cru: Les Bressandes, Les Perrières, Les Grèves and Clos du Roi, the proportions of which vary depending on the vintage. The average age of the vines is over 40 years. After aging individually, only the best barrels are assembled to create the Château Corton Grancey

Dominio Pingus “Flor de Pingus”, Ribera del Duero, Spain

2013 £34

Pingus was established in 1995 by Peter Sisseck, who had already made a name for himself as winemaker at Hacienda Monasterio. He located three separate plots, each containing very old vines of Tinto Fino, and established the winery. His aim was to produce “an unmistakably Spanish, terroir-driven wine... a garage wine.” Peter's tiny production of fewer than 500 cases comes from three parcels of ancient, head-pruned Tempranillo vines. His true genius is demonstrated in the vineyard. The gnarled old vines have been carefully husbanded back to health - the trunks straightened, lowered, and pruned back to 1-2 buds per stump. “Tinto Fino is important,” he explains. “A lot of cuttings of Tempranillo have come in from Rioja, so not all vineyards in Ribera del Duero are Tinto Fino. There is a difference. All the vines in my plots are very old. They have never been fertilised nor treated with pesticides and all grow following the traditional en vaso system. They are perfect.”

Brunello Di Montalcino “Pian delle Vigne”, Antinori, Tuscany, Italy

1999 £35

The Pian delle Vigne Estate is located six kilometers south of Montalcino, above the Val d'Orcia valley, and it was named for the characteristic 19th century train station situated in the property, which is still in use. There are 27 hectares of 20 years-old vines and 33 hectares planted recently which will begin their production between 2000 and 2001. The vineyards which produced the Brunello vintage 1999 are at an elevation of 130 metres sea level, with south east exposure. The soil is stony calcareous composition, with tufaceous areas, tending to be quite "poor".

Brunello di Montalcino is produced exclusively with Sangiovese

Château Léoville Poyferré, 2ème Grand Cru Classé, Saint-Julien, France

2001 £36

“The Saint Julien appellation is small in size, yet big on talent. In the heart of the famed Médoc vineyard, Château Léoville Poyferré has always been one of the most prestigious estates of this terroir.

Since 1979, our family has been dedicated to a vision that leaves no room for improvisation. Every decision, every investment, is a step towards ultimate quality, one that makes a simple wine an exceptional one, recognized as a Second Classified Growth in 1855.”

Didier Cuvelier
