Pommery, Brut Royal, Champagne, France Deft, harmonious and pretty in style, few Champagne houses can match Pommery for charm and finesse	12%	£24	£61.50	£110
2018 Balfour, Brut Rosé, Kent, England Pink wizardry from Dermot Sugrue: cranberries and cream	12%	£24	£61.50	£110
Pommery, Brut Rosé, Champagne, France As pretty to taste as it is to look at: charm in a glass	12.5%	£27	£72	£130
2008 Pommery, Grand Cru, Champagne, France Only the greatest grapes in this resonant and vivacious vintage blend	12.5%	£30	£74.50	£145
André Robert, Les Jardins du Mesnil, Grand Cru, Extra Brut, Blanc de Blancs, Champagne, France With no less than 6.5 ha in Le Mesnil, the Robert family is able to produce ultra-fine-grained, delicate Blanc de Blancs: a new grower reference	12%	£40	£108	£195
2016 Chapel Down, Blanc de Blancs, Coeur de Cuvée, Kit's Coty, Kent, England Sculpted and incisive: chalky finesse from Kent's greatest vineyard	12%	£51	£140	£255

White

Glass 175ml,
125ml glass available

2021 Balfour, The White, Kent, England This blend of Bacchus and Pinot Blanc, vinified at Staplehurst in Kent, is pure, zesty, fragrant, light and refreshing	11.5%	£12.50	£25	£45
2016 Solaris, Somerby Vineyards, Lincolnshire, England Planted on chalk in the Lincolnshire Wolds, this Solaris-based white has come into its own after half a decade's maturation: bracing yet resonant	11%	-	-	£49
2014 Blackbird, Furnace Projects, Herefordshire, England Phoenix from great Herefordshire fruit country -- yet the structure and depth almost recall the Northern Rhône	10%	£14.50	£30	£55
2020 Pinot Gris, Middle-Earth, Nelson, New Zealand Tenderly off-dry, with subtle flavours of fig, pear and nougatine, yet packed with Kiwi refreshment, too	13%	£16.50	£34	£62
2021 Viognier, Grès du Trias, Vignerons Ardéchois, Rhône Valley, France Floral and seductive, yet fresh and mouth-watering, too: brilliant Viognier from an under-the-radar source in pretty Ardèche	13.5%	£16.50	£34.50	£63
2022 Sauvignon Blanc, Dog's Point, Marlborough, New Zealand Whole-bunch pressed and partly wild-yeast fermented. Fragrant, juicy and ultra-lively. Impeccable definition and Marlborough classicism here	13%	£18.50	£38.50	£69
2022 Petit Chablis, Daniel Dampé & Fils, Burgundy, France Made in a richer, more tender style than much Petit Chablis: deliciously forward, almost exotic, yet with some classical salinity too	12.5%	£20.50	£43	£78
2021 Grüner Veltliner Blend, Lust and Laune, Lukas Strobl, Austria A blend of Grüner Veltliner with Roter Veltliner and Chardonnay: easy-drinking wine in "completely natural" style with ample freshness and tension	12%	£23.50	£48.50	£88
2020 Chardonnay, Danbury Ridge, Essex, England Balanced, perfumed and full-flavoured, the Danbury Ridge Chardonnay marks a new high for Burgundy's great white grape in Southern England	12.5%	£29.50	£62.50	£112
2020 Sancerre, Les Monts Damnés, Paul Prieur et Fils, Loire Valley, France Delicious Sancerre from this celebrated lieu-dit, made "in a ripe and round style that's accessible from the off" (Rebecca Gibb MW)	14.5%			£139

Rosé

2014 The Robin, Reserve Rosé, Furnace Projects, Herefordshire, England A fascinating blend here: Pinot for purity, Bacchus for perfume and Seyval for sap. Deliciously soft-contoured, too	10%	£14.50	£30	£55
2022 Studio by Miraval, Château Miraval, IGP Méditerranée, France This beautifully bottled, ultra-pale rosé is nuanced, supple and moreish	12.5%	£15.50	£33	£59
2021 Côtes de Provence, La Chapelle Gordonne, Tête de Cuvée, Ch la Gordonne, Provence, France Night-harvested Grenache, Syrah and Cinsault grown on limestone and shale: fragrant, graceful and teasing rosé in classical Provence style	12.5%	£19.50	£41.50	£75
2021 Sancerre Rosé, Chavignol, Delaporte, Loire Valley, France A pale orange-pink rosé directly pressed from Pinot Noir grapes, grown in one of the best sectors of Sancerre	13%	£22	£46.50	£83

Red

Glass 175ml,
125ml glass available

2019 Rock Lodge, Plumpton Estate, East Sussex, England A blend of Rondo and Dornfelder from one of the oldest vineyards in the UK: ample quenching charm	11%	£12.50	£25	£45
2014 Rondo, Somerby Vineyards, Lincolnshire, England A rare chance to try smooth, oak-aged Rondo from Lincolnshire with over four years' bottle age	11%			£49
2021 Marselan, Bodegas del Sur, Canelones, Uruguay A fine South American example of this Cabernet-Grenache cross: soft and packed with berry fruits	13%	£14.50	£30	£55
2019 Merlot, Glass Collection, Glenelly, Stellenbosch, South Africa Intense, generous and characterful Cape Merlot from the estate of former Pichon-Lalande owner, May-Eliane de Lencquesaing	14.5%	£16.50	£35.50	£63
2019 Côtes du Rhône-Villages, Grande Réserve, St Pantaléon les Vignes, Domaine Gigondan, Rhône Valley, France From pure, 100-year-old Grenache, in the best years only, this dense, complex red exceeds 'Village' expectations for its powerful red and black fruits.	14.5%	£17	£38	£68
2014 Rioja, Viña Cubillo, López de Heredia, Rioja Alta, Spain Wonderful value for a mature wine from one the greatest producers in Spain's finest wine region: perfumed berry fruits and a fleshy yet lively flavour	13.5%	£18.50	£39.50	£70
2019 Pinot Noir, Surreal, Pivnica Brhlouce, Slovakia Pure, fragrant Pinot with gentle oaking, from a volcanic-soiled region north of Budapest and east of Bratislava	13%	£23.50	£49	£88
2019 Chianti Classico, Riserva, Castello di Monsanto, Tuscany, Italy This "fabulous wine that punches well above its weight" is a vibrant, mid-weight classic with ample floral and leather notes and glowing fruits	14%			£101
2018 St Emilion, Collines de l'If, Bordeaux, France L'If is the St Emilion château owned by Jacques and Fiona Thienpont of Le Pin fame. The château's second wine is spicy, open-knit, plump and generous	14.5%	£38.50	£82.50	£149
