

VIVAT BACCHUS

A taste of South Africa

We believe life's too short to drink bad wine, and at Vivat Bacchus, that is impossible. We are lovers of the old world as well as the new, but have a soft spot for wines of South Africa thanks to our roots. We take pride in our selection, and there is nothing on our list that we would not get stuck into ourselves.

Jacques Malan gave up his practice to pursue his love of wine. Now his son Anton makes the wine and his other son Francois tends the vines of the 22 hectare estate in Stellenbosch. The vineyards rise up from the valley floor to 550m above sea level high up the Jonkershoek Mountain

Large wine bottles like Magnums, Jeroboam even Massive 15L Nebuchadnezzar, are not just about the size—the larger the bottles, the slower the wine matures, which often results in smoother, more complex results. nothing says "celebration" like a 5-foot-tall bottle

Blackwater Wines

It's a journey, not a race.

Francois Haasbroek worked for a decade at Waterford Estate but had always dreamed of having his own winery. After years of working till 3am in the morning before returning for his shift at Waterford Estate, his dream came true: Blackwater Wines was born.
