Making Wedding Day Dreams Come True

ST AUDRIES PARK

Making Wedding Day Dreams Come True...

In the heart of picturesque parkland with far-reaching sea views, lies your very own fairy-tale manor house for your tranquil big day. Say 'I do' in the glorious Victorian Orangery before serving a feast inside the decorative Edwardian reception rooms.

Exclusively yours, a wedding at St. Audries Park is an unforgettable experience enhanced by spectacular scenery, fine dining and flexible hospitality.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

Set in 100 acres of scenic deer park, the winding drive through woods and parkland leads you to the dramatic Gothic entrance of the private manor house, where panoramic views stretch across the rolling Quantock Hills and as far as the Bristol Channel. With parts of the estate dating back to the 11th Century, today the house's most striking features are the breathtaking Victorian Orangery and 19th-century Great Hall. From the moment you enter the house its grandeur is apparent, as you are greeted by the beautiful high ceilings with gorgeous wood beams and imposing period fireplace the Great Hall boasts.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

The country manor boasts a wealth of reception rooms, all high ceilinged and elegant. Offering a blend of style and comfort around every turn, from the Orangery, Banqueting Hall and Library to the Drawing Room and fully stocked bars.

St Audries Park is a short drive from the pretty village of Williton, located close to Bristol, Taunton and the South West. A picturesque location, with stunning views that offers a romantic retreat to couples and their guests.

THE CEREMONY

A showstopping Orangery or a beautiful church, both ceremony options offer you a magical and memorable place to say your vows. The Victorian Orangery is a breathtaking glass structure bathed in natural light all year round. With views of the main house, you will fall in love with the arched glass roof and floor to ceiling windows. For religious ceremonies, the magnificent medieval St. Etheldreda's Church can be found within the estate. For either ceremony, let the splendid gardens be your aisle with just a short walk through the idyllic grounds.

THE CEREMONY

Light, airy, and magical all year round, the Orangery will provide unrivalled beauty for your ceremony. Say 'I do' at the end of a gorgeous aisle under the feature arch. A mesmerising room, it holds up to 130 guests.

Not only is the Orangery captivating, but the walk from the main house gives views of the bubbling fountain and immaculate gardens. Celebrate taking your vows with confetti on the steps – a picture perfect moment with you and your guests.

THE RECEPTION

After your ceremony, your celebrations truly begin, as your reception will see your guests relax in the house and enjoy a cocktail or two. Your wedding breakfast marks the start of emotional speeches and a delicious three-course meal in the Banqueting Hall. Many of your evening reception memories will be made in the Champagne Bar & Disco, from your first dance as newlyweds to those propping up the bar and nodding their heads as the in-house DJ sets the mood. You have exclusive use of the entire venue to enjoy well into the night.

THE RECEPTION

The Great Hall with its medieval vaulted ceiling, roaring log fire and beautiful wood flooring is the ideal location to have your first dance. Continue the celebrations well into the night with guests enjoying the many reception rooms and bars during their stay.

The Banqueting Hall has a lovely high ceiling, with three elegant chandeliers and gorgeous hardwood floors. Accommodating up to 130 guests, they will enjoy a delectable meal, while the Cocktail Bar ensures your guests are never too far from a tasty tippie.

THE HISTORY OF ST AUDRIES PARK

Records of the St Audries estate can be traced back as far as 1086, when it was mentioned in the Domsday Book. William de Mahon held Cantocheve as it was then known, detailing people, animals, farm implements, 50 acres of woodland and 16 acres of meadow. The name Cantocheve derives from canto cuan - meaning hill country referring to the beautiful hills of the Quantocks that loom above the estate.

Half a century later the Malet family of Enmore Castle held ownership of the site. The family were descendants of Guillame Malet, who was a companion and kinsman of William I. The estate stayed with the Malet family for over 500 years, and it was one of its descendants, Michael Malet, who renamed it to St Audries and carried out extensive work, enlarging the site into one huge, profitable, working estate.

However, much of the beautiful mansion that we see today was built by the Acland family between 1835 and 1870. Sir Alexander Bateman Periam Fuller Acland-Hood carried out extensive renovations including new frontages on the South West and South East aspects, allowing for the Great Hall with the Minstrel's Gallery that we still see today. The state rooms were furnished with the finest material from all corners of the world and valuable paintings adorned the walls including Turner's 'The Beach at Hastings'. Today, the Turner picture may no longer be present, but the stately feel of this quintessentially British country estate still remains for its wedding couples to enjoy in all its glory.

THE HAPPY COUPLES...

Phiroze & I had the most magical wedding possible on Thursday at this beautiful venue. Nothing was too much trouble during our Night Before celebrations, hosted at Peregrine House, and actual Wedding Day and our Wedding Co-Ordinator Claire deserves nothing but praise! We would thoroughly recommend St Audries Park as a wedding venue for anyone wanting a wonderfully unforgettable experience!
Suzi & Phiroze

Now we're back from Madrid, we just wanted to get in touch to thank Aly and all of the team at St. Audries Park for an amazing day. We can't say thank you enough for everything you all did for us, the venue is perfect, the food was fantastic, the staff so friendly and helpful, it was all we could have ever asked for and more. All the feedback from our guests is exactly the same, everybody loved it.
Emily & Matt

There are no words to describe how amazing this venue is! We loved every minute of our day and felt special from the moment we first viewed the venue & even still do Any one who is lucky enough to have Aly as a wedding planner as we were, will have a day like no other. She was there from the moment I woke up to the moment I went to bed and she helped with everything and made it stress free - she couldn't have done anymore. I will 100% be going back as many times as I can squeeze in, and will be planning my renewal there to lol !!!
Stacie & Simon

Love love love St Audries Park, once we had seen it we knew nowhere else would compare. We had our special day here in April and it was absolutely perfect! All of the staff were amazing, the food was great and the venue beautiful. If you're thinking of St Audries Park as your wedding venue arrange a look around, there's no hard selling (unlike some places we looked at) and I'm sure you won't be disappointed.
Becky & Ryan

Thank you to Claire and the team at St Audries Park, our wedding on Monday was everything I could have imagined it to be and more.
