Catherine Hares
Parks and Hospitality Manager

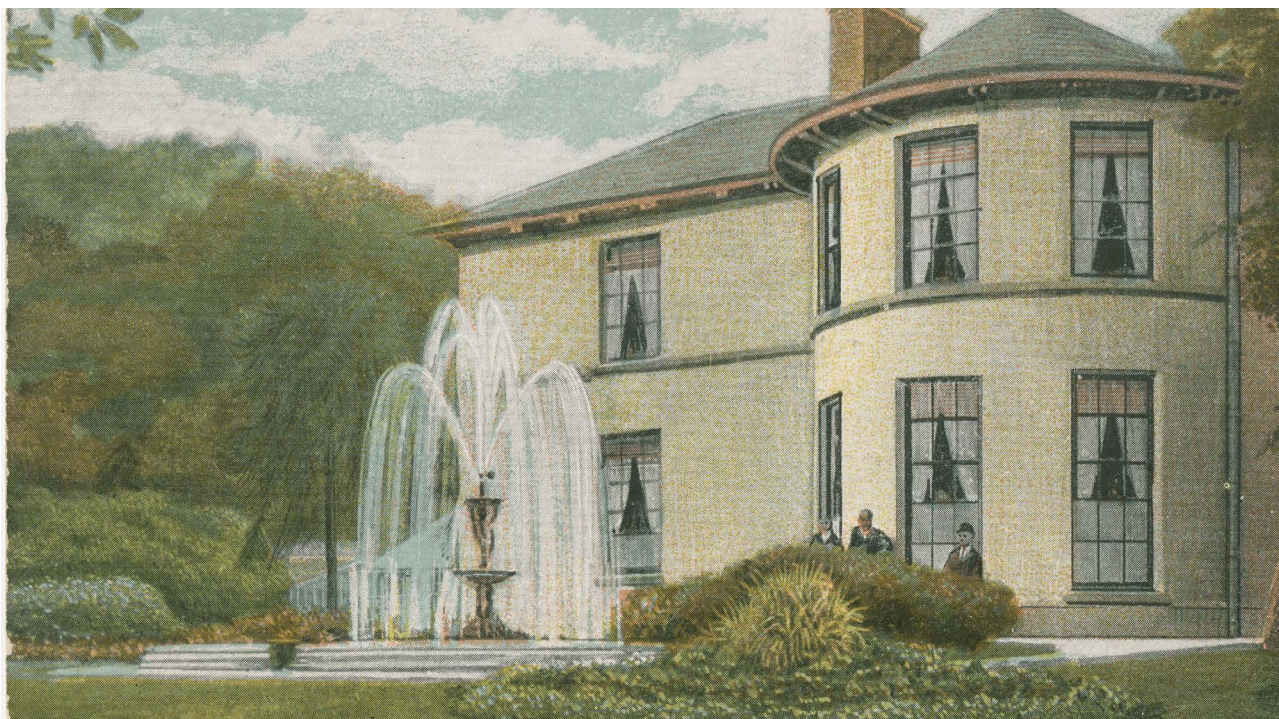

"From start to finish the team at Bedwellty House and Park made organising our wedding an absolute breeze. The care taken of us from start to finish was exemplary, from picking a date and showing us around the venue, to making sure all the finishing touches were complete with plenty of time before the ceremony, taking all of the stress out of it for both of us. Nothing was too big an ask. The grounds are beautiful, and the ceremony room was beautifully decorated. The food was amazing, and we had a fantastic day, certainly a day we will remember for the rest of our lives."

Lindsey and Wayne Clarke

"Our wedding day at Bedwellty House was amazing. From start to finish the support and help given by the staff were fantastic. We got married in what were really uncertain times and planning was difficult, but we were put at ease and we never felt as if we were on our own. If there were any questions regarding food, room, ceremony or on-the-day timings etc, and there were many, they were answered promptly, or we pointed in the direction of the person that could help. The food options for the wedding breakfast/evening buffet were plentiful. All food was of top quality and served piping hot. If you were to book your wedding at Bedwellty House you wouldn't be disappointed, and neither would your guests. Our family and guests still talk about how beautiful the wedding, location, surroundings and atmosphere were".

The team at Bedwellty was absolutely wonderful in supporting us with the delay and when we finally got married in February 2022 the whole day was just amazing as were the team; helpful and nothing was too much trouble. The venue is just magical and steeped in local Welsh history. We couldn't have wished for a more beautiful venue and have made a few recommendations to our friends to get married there."

Legal Requirements for Getting Married

Before you can marry in England or Wales, each person to the marriage has to arrange to begin the Legal process.

Civil Ceremony

If you are having a civil ceremony at Bedwellty House, it is necessary for you to give Notice of Marriage to the Superintendent Registrar. You can give Notice of Marriage up to one year before the date of your Marriage. This will then begin the process that will eventually allow a Registrar or authorised person to register the marriage. Please telephone the Superintendent Registrar on 01495 369213 to discuss this process in more detail.

Religious Ceremony

If the marriage is to be a religious ceremony in a Church of England or Church in Wales, prior to the ceremony the vicar will arrange for the banns to be read. However, if the ceremony is in a building of any other religious denomination, you must give legal notice to the Superintendent Registrar.

Giving Notice

Once you have chosen the date and venue for your wedding, you must arrange to give Notice of Marriage to the Superintendent Registrar of the District in which you live, no later than 29 days before the actual ceremony. You must be resident in the district for at least seven days immediately prior to giving your Notice (if you live in different districts each of you must give notice in your own district). If you live in Blaenau Gwent, the Register Office is at:

Bedwellty House, Morgan Street, Tredegar, NP22 3XN
Telephone: 01495 369213.

It will be necessary for you to make an appointment with the Superintendent Registrar to give Notice of your Marriage.

Documentation that You Will Need to Bring with You

When you make an appointment to give Notice of Marriage, the Registrar will explain in detail the required documents you will need to bring with you – for example passport, birth certificate, decree absolute and proof of address. There is a fee to be paid – please visit the Register Office website for up to date fees.

The purpose of giving Notice of Marriage is for the Superintendent Registrar to ensure you are lawfully free to marry and to complete the legal documentation for your marriage.

We hope this information has been useful and we look forward to hearing from you shortly. In the meantime, if we can be of any further assistance please do not hesitate to contact the Registration staff.
