Unique, chic and discreet

The Union Club offers a fabulously relaxed, bohemian backdrop for your special day.

A 300 year-old Georgian town house decorated with French street lights, modern and antique furniture and an eclectic art collection, complemented by acclaimed, unpretentious modern British cuisine, and a delightful team of experienced staff.

Boutique, intimate and bijou. A venue like no other. Do come and say hello.

"From the moment we entered the club after getting off the bus, the day ran seamlessly. We could not fault anything or anyone at the club."

From the champagne on arrival, the fabulous food and the fantastically unobtrusive service the day flowed into night along with the champagne with an amazing time had by all our guests."

Gary and MJ

"Our venue, the Union Club, is a really cool members only club in Soho that is also legally and emotionally equipped for weddings. I kept saying to my friends that it's like it was designed by Miss Havisham, but that doesn't really do it justice."-

Club History

Prior to its first development in the 18th century, the area was used as a hunting ground by local gentry who would cry 'Soho! Soho!' as they chased through the woods. Subsequently, the whole area gained the name Soho Fields, which was then shortened to what it's called now - 'Soho'. This Georgian townhouse was built in 1736 by William Frith, a local carpenter, who erected six houses, all to the same pattern. In those days it was mostly fields and woodland all the way to Highgate. Over the years it has of course been used for everything and anything, and no doubt saw plenty of action as a brothel, gambling and drinking den. Soho has always been colourful. Today, 50 Greek Street is the last remaining of the original six houses and is a listed historical building of considerable merit.

Our first floor Dining Room is an elegant space that will take 70 sitting down for ceremonies.

We also have smaller Georgian rooms for you to get ready in, store presents or just have a little peace and quiet to collect your thoughts. Whatever your wedding requires, please let us know how we can help.

Reception Drinks

After you've tied the knot we will welcome you and your guests into our Ground Floor Bar for a reception drink. Prosecco, Champagne, what we serve is up to you.

If you've opted to have your Ceremony at the Club, it takes us on average an hour to transform the Dining Room before your Wedding Breakfast.

There is plenty of room to mingle, relax, and catch up with the other guests. We even have a piano you to entertain your loved ones.

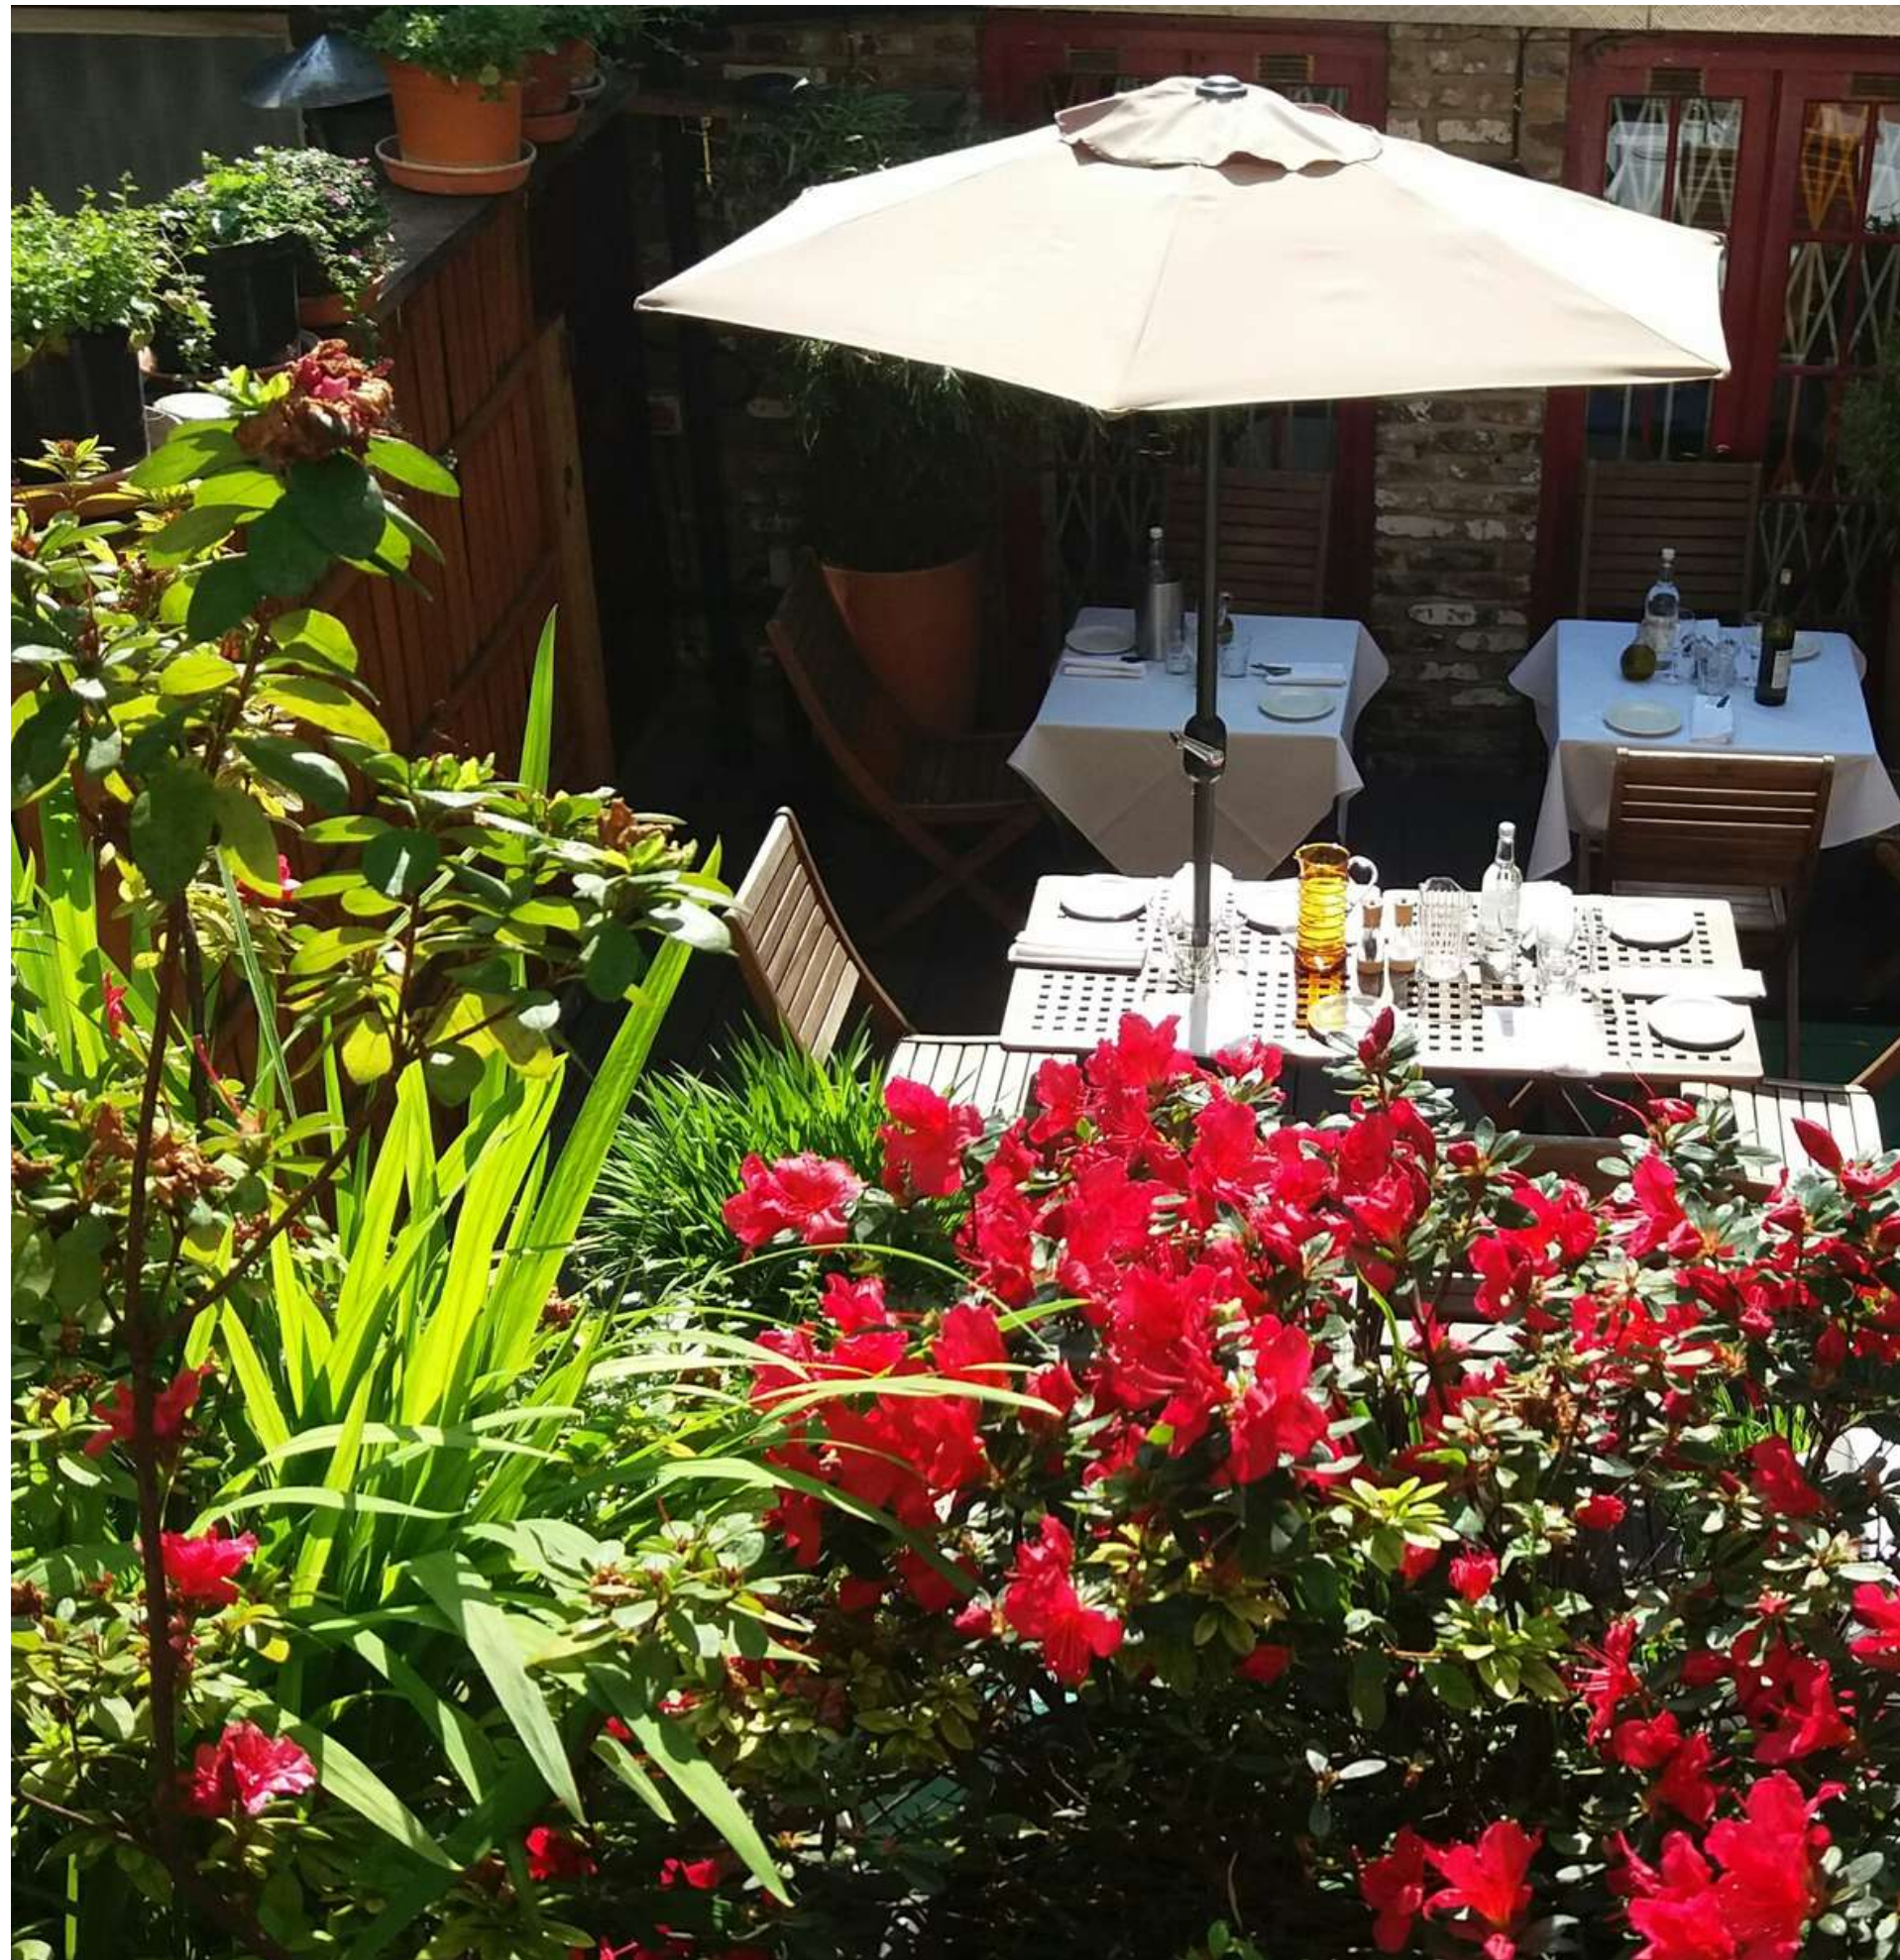

A Drinks Reception is the perfect way to bridge the gap between your Ceremony and your Wedding Breakfast, and a perfect time to sneak off and take photos around the Club and the streets of Soho.

Champagne Reception

Confetti on Greek Street

Roof Terrace

Our sunny roof terrace is a hidden gem and the perfect addition to your reception. As many as 50 people can be stood here for a drinks reception - or it can simply be used as a break-out space for your guests to enjoy a little quiet garden time away from the party!

"Many, many thanks for all the work you put in to make last night so very special, it was everything and more than we hoped it would be. It ran like clockwork and we've had so many people let us know today how great the venue was, how friendly the staff were and how good the food was. That's a pretty good triple whammy!"
