And of course, what better way to celebrate the evening than by dancing the night away with your friends and loved ones? Let loose, enjoy the music, and create lifelong memories with your guests.

So, let the evening come alive at the King Suite as you dance, celebrate and make unforgettable memories with your friends and family.

JEWISH PRE WEDDING CELEBRATIONS

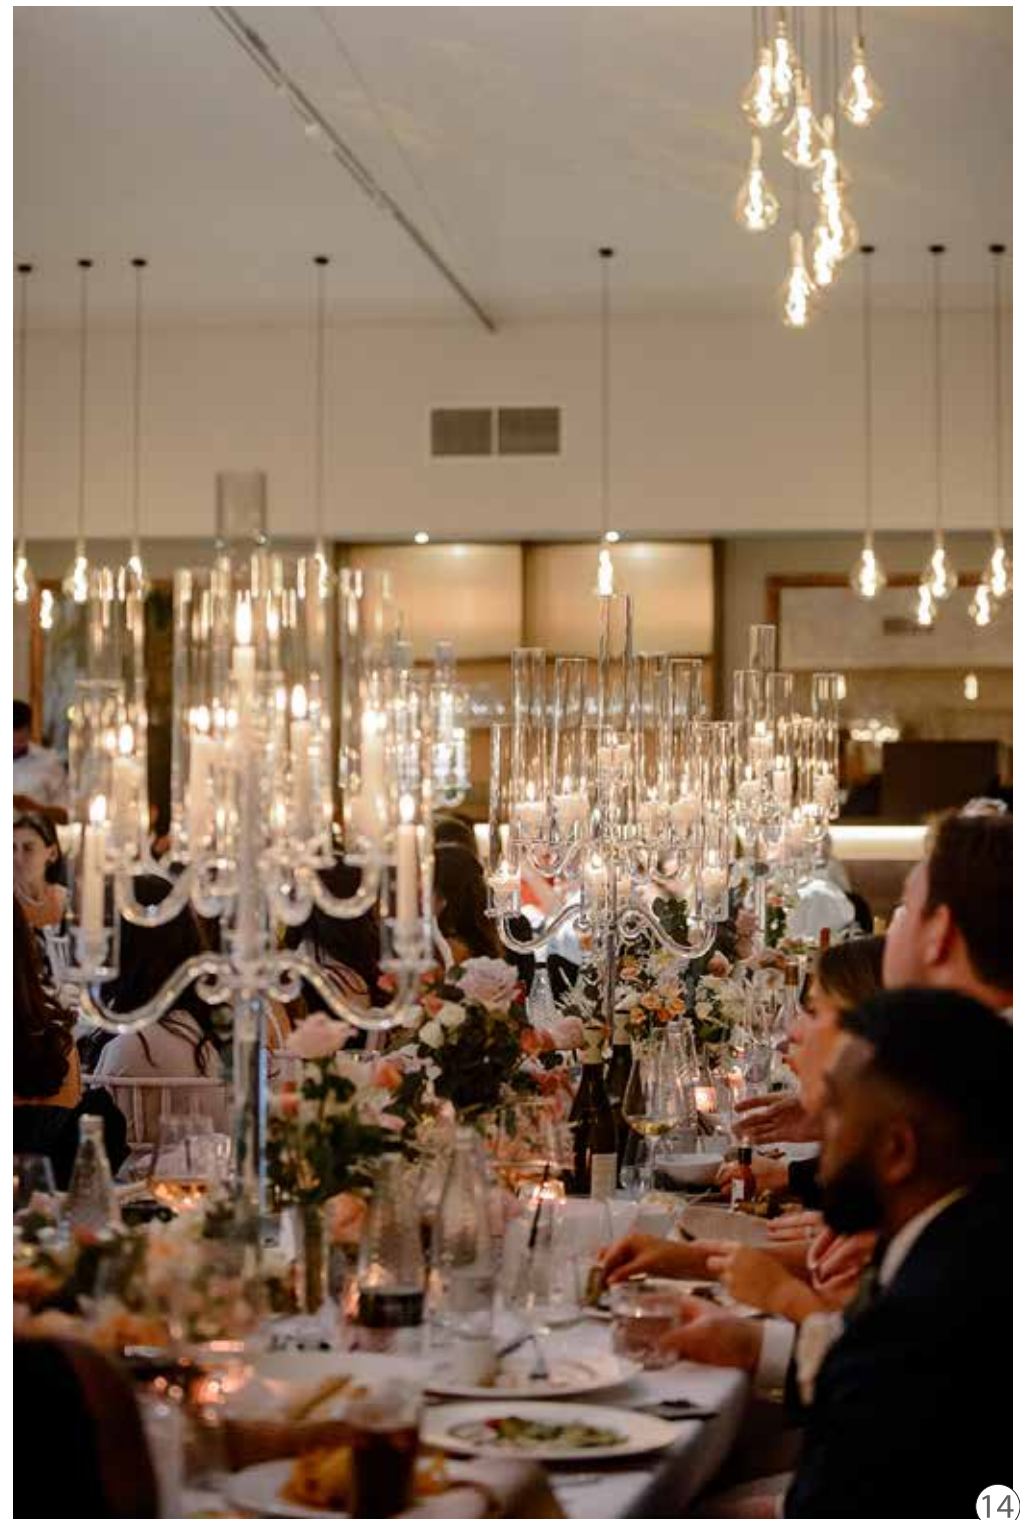

The Tisch is a cherished tradition in Jewish weddings, serving as a pre-ceremony gathering where the groom and his male relatives come together to celebrate and prepare for the upcoming marriage.

Signing the Ketubah is a powerful ritual that marks the beginning of your marriage with intention and meaning. It connects you to centuries of Jewish tradition while reflecting the love and values that are uniquely yours. Whether your ceremony is traditional, modern, interfaith, or somewhere in between, the act of signing your Ketubah is one of the most intimate and symbolic moments of the day.

The Bedeken is a traditional Jewish ritual, often taking place just before the main wedding ceremony begins. It involves the groom (accompanied by male family and friends) approaching the bride (who is usually seated on a "throne" surrounded by female family and friends) and placing the veil over her face.

AFRICAN & CARIBBEAN WEDDING CELEBRATIONS

At Easthampstead Park, we embrace the vibrant heritage of African & Caribbean weddings where love, family, and culture come together in joyful celebration.

AFRICAN HERITAGE

Rooted in unity and ancestry, African weddings often feature beautiful customs such as libation rituals, kola nut blessings, and the symbolic jumping of the broom. Bold colours, rich fabrics, drumming, and dance create an atmosphere filled with life and meaning.

CARIBBEAN HERITAGE

Caribbean celebrations radiate warmth, rhythm, and community. With steel pan music, reggae and soca beats, and unity ceremonies, each moment reflects the spirit of love and freedom. Vibrant décor and island flavours bring the day to life in true Caribbean style.

CELEBRATE & HAVE FUN

At Easthampstead Park, the wedding breakfast is more than a meal. It's a celebration of love, laughter, and culture. From lively games like the shoe game and money dance to storytelling and interactive traditions, every moment brings families and friends together, creating memories that will be cherished forever.
