The Venue

The Guildhall is an impressive and unique venue in the heart of York's city centre, delivering a grand and breathtaking backdrop for your special day.

Exclusively yours, this 15th century building is made of handcrafted pearl-coloured limestone which stands in contrast to eight elegant oak pillars. Each pillar carved from a single tree, they tower through our impressive main hall with space to seat 120 guests.

The captivating stained glass window depicting York's history overlooks the room where you and your guests can dine and dance the night away in a truly one of a kind, unforgettable venue.

Please note that The Guildhall is available for weekend weddings only.

The Ceremony

We know that many couples have a ceremony venue in mind, perhaps a religious space, an intimate ceremony at the Registry Office, or, a place where you first met. Wherever you choose to say your vows, we will be ready to welcome you to celebrate your nuptials - medieval style!

When you're saying I do's in the heart of York's city centre, we are just a short stroll through the picturesque streets of York (a fantastic way to get those all important wedding photos!) We also work closely with nearby venues such as York Mansion House which is directly opposite The Guildhall, which is the perfect Georgian setting for an elegant ceremony. We can ensure a smooth running transition to keep your guest dazzled until your arrival.

Although we do not host ceremonies, we can host wedding blessings, contact our team to find out more about pricing and information

Please note the Guildhall is available for weekend weddings only.
