The Stratford & Allegra are set within Manhattan Loft Gardens, a building that combines extraordinary architecture with world class design and hospitality.

The Stratford evokes the timeless glamour and maverick social spirit of New York's legendary long-stay hotels. Set across the first seven levels of Manhattan Loft Gardens, it's a design hotel with a taste for the spectacular – from the magnificent triple-height lobby and Highline rooftop garden to the imposing glass atrium. The Stratford is a 145-room design hotel with interiors by Space Copenhagen, the design duo behind New York's 11 Howard and the legendary NOMA. Serene pastel tones, natural timbers and elegant stone bathrooms fuse Scandinavian style with old-world opulence.

Allegra is a restaurant offering east London a high-end dining experience underpinned by authentic old-school hospitality. The main room evokes the timeless grandeur of a Scandinavian farmhouse – featuring an open kitchen, sweeping stone bar and rich, stained oak furniture, illuminated by Allegra’s floor to ceiling windows and framed by a natural stone Montpelier floor. Retractive glass walls open out onto the terrace and large garden overlooking the London skyline.

THE END OF THE NIGHT

Good hotels provide everything you need. Great ones have already thought of more than you can imagine. You can expect pitch-perfect service, a beautiful room and a bed you won't want to leave.

Your friends and family can book from our 145 bedrooms – from our cosy standard rooms to the sprawling 65 square metre Manhattan Studio, with a large lounge, which is perfect for getting ready in.

The spacious guest rooms are modern, intimate, comfortable and well-balanced, with floor-to-ceiling windows allowing generous light – each equipped with all the 21st century trimmings and Ren products. Natural woods in different hues, warm metals and softly curved upholstered shapes complement each other. Stone-clad bathrooms with a serene ambience, heated floors, separate bathtubs and sculpted vanity mirrors offer supreme comfort. In all of the rooms Space Copenhagen has designed vanities and vanity mirrors, beds, bedside tables and desks exclusively for The Stratford.
