

Old Sessions House Wedding Brochure

The House

Old Sessions House offers a very special opportunity for an occupier to be truly inspired by their surroundings, with special views over Clerkenwell Green. There is 18843 square feet of rejuvenated space available in this unique former courthouse, which dominates Clerkenwell Green on an island site. The building has undergone a full, sympathetic refurbishment to provide one of central London's truly rare opportunities.

Since the building's completion a wide range of events have also been held on site such as the Autumn 2017 Burberry fashion show and art exhibition, Dezeen awards 2019 and Elle decoration awards to name a few.

Our Spaces

The entire house can be yours for the day, including our rooftop pool. We can host up to 120 guests for dinner or 350 guests for a reception, each room with its own personality and historic architectural details.

The Great Room

The centre of gravity at Old Sessions House. A unique and stunning room to hold your wedding reception.

Huge original sash windows overlook Clerkenwell Green while you dine under the giant chandelier and high ceilings.

After eating, this room can be transformed into an amazing dance space to carry on the party.
