WELCOME TO HIGHDEN ESTATE

Nestled within the exquisite South Downs National Park, Highden Estate offers a truly remarkable setting for any occasion. With its close proximity to central London, being just forty miles away, it is a convenient escape from city life.

Spanning nearly 1,000 acres, the estate boasts a captivating blend of historic woodland and rolling fields, providing a haven of privacy, tranquility, and stunning views stretching from the Isle of Wight to the iconic cityscape of London.

Highden Estate offers two different venues, each with its own distinct charm and ambiance. Among its highlights is the impressive and meticulously maintained Highden Walled Garden, which dates back to the Victorian era. Stepping into this hidden oasis, you are immediately enveloped in a serene and secure space, where vibrant colours seamlessly harmonize with hidden artwork pieces, such as pottery and breathtaking features like the bench crafted from wound willow. The garden also features a captivating apple and pear archway, exquisite vines, and the climbing Lady Silvia Rose, an enduring legacy planted by the Denman family in the early 1900s.

Whether you desire an intimate gathering or a grand celebration, Highden Estate provides a truly beautiful backdrop that exudes elegance and creates unforgettable memories.

THE WALLED GARDEN

The Walled Garden at the Highden Estate is a true gem, dating back to the Victorian era and meticulously maintained ever since. As you step through the garden door, you are instantly transported into a serene and tranquil space. The high walls surrounding the garden provide both privacy and security, creating a perfect venue for any occasion.

During the summer months, the garden comes alive with a breathtaking display of colours, where carefully curated artwork pieces, such as pottery and a bench crafted from wound willow, add an organic and artistic touch that seamlessly blends with the surrounding flowers and foliage.

Strolling along the pebble pathway, you'll notice a magnificent apple and pear archway that traverses the middle of the garden, creating a beautiful focal point. Vines adorned with various berries and flowers, including the climbing Lady Silvia Rose, planted by the Denman family in the early 1900s, further enhance the natural beauty of the garden.

With its rich history and charming features, the Highden Walled Garden provides a picturesque and enchanting setting for a variety of events. Whether you're planning an intimate gathering, a romantic wedding ceremony, or a sophisticated corporate celebration, this unique space offers a perfect blend of beauty, tranquillity, and elegance. The flexibility of the venue enables couples to create the day they have dreamt of, decorating it as they wish and choosing their own suppliers.

We can comfortably seat up to 160 guests using our own supply of rustic wooden tables and chairs, all included with the venue hire. In the evening, the space can welcome a total of 200 guests, making it ideal for couples who want to celebrate with a larger group of friends and family. We are also proud to offer our stunning, rustic onsite bar, The Hidden Spirit. Fully licensed, staffed, and stocked, it provides a warm and welcoming focal point for your celebration.

WEDDING CEREMONIES

We are delighted to offer Wedding Ceremonies in our beautiful Walled garden, thoughtfully laid out to accommodate ceremonies throughout the year. Whether you prefer the romantic ambiance of our rose garden and love in the mist ceremony areas on lovely summer days or the covered comfort of the Orchard area with its stylish stretch tent, we have you covered.
