

MAD SWANS

Weddings

Welcome

At Mad Swans in the Mendips, we believe a great wedding is in the eye of the beholder.

Our approach is anything but rigid. We don't believe in tradition for tradition's sake. It's all about good old-fashioned fun, however you and your guests prefer it. Whether you find joy in sprawling feasts, winding countryside settings, the perfect glass of wine - or all of the above - you're in safe hands.

For weddings designed from the ground up with you in mind, welcome to Mad Swans.

The Old Farmhouse

Inspired by the stunning Mendips Hills it's nestled within, The Old Farmhouse allows you to take one step closer to nature, without sacrificing on home comforts.

With its own kitchen and bar, you and your guests are the sole focus of our team, who are on hand to ensure your day runs exactly as you dreamt it. Shape your celebrations with the Old Farmhouse to be dressed and arranged as you please. As the party gets going, guests can freely drift between soaking in the scenery, taking to the dancefloor and tucking into a plate of something delicious in their own countryside haven, exclusively yours for the day.

Play

We know that your wedding is more than just a day. It's a gathering. A celebration. A story your guests will be telling years from now.

From relaxed games before the ceremony. To playful moments woven through the day itself. Late-night and next-morning fun that keeps everyone together just a little longer. We create space for connection, laughter, and shared memories.

This is where welcome drinks turn into friendly competition. Where downtime becomes part of the magic. And where your wedding becomes folklore.
