Weddings

FALL IN LOVE ALL OVER AGAIN AT ONE MARYLEBONE

One Marylebone is one of London's most iconic wedding venues. Designed by Sir John Soane in 1826 and set just moments from Regent's Park, this Grade I Listed landmark offers a wedding venue with architectural soul.

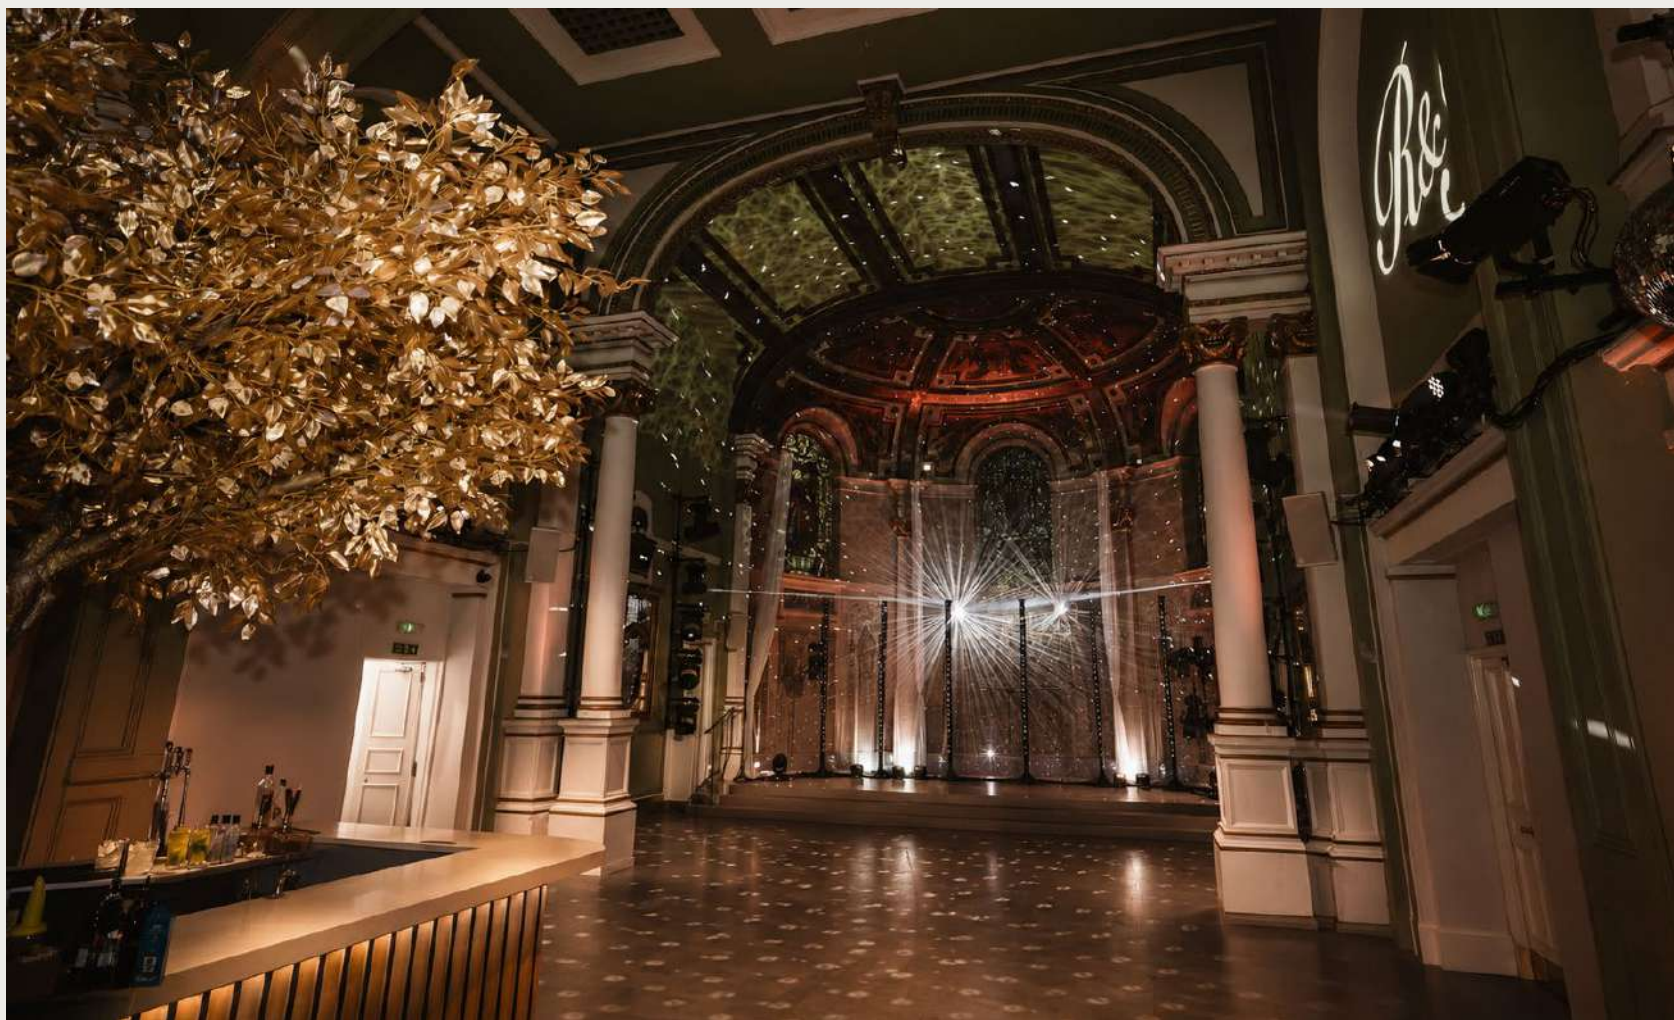

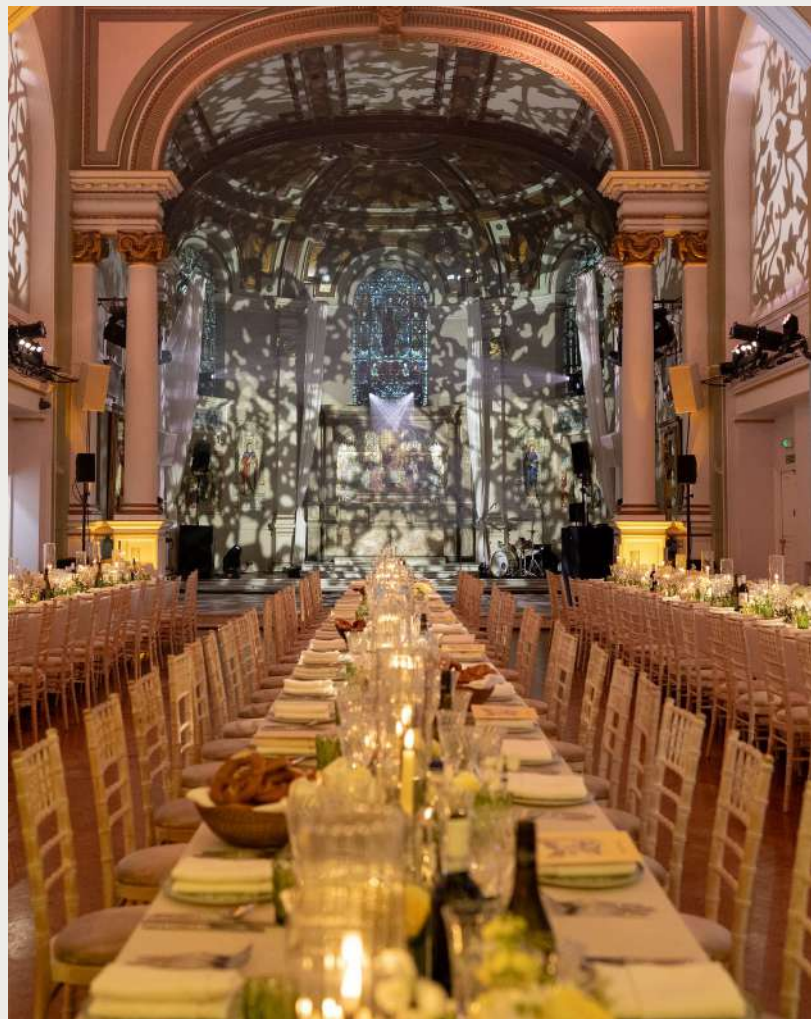

Whether you're planning an intimate ceremony for 40 or a celebration for up to 320, the spaces adapt effortlessly to your vision. From timeless romance to modern elegance.

One Marylebone provides a distinctive backdrop for a wedding that feels entirely your own.

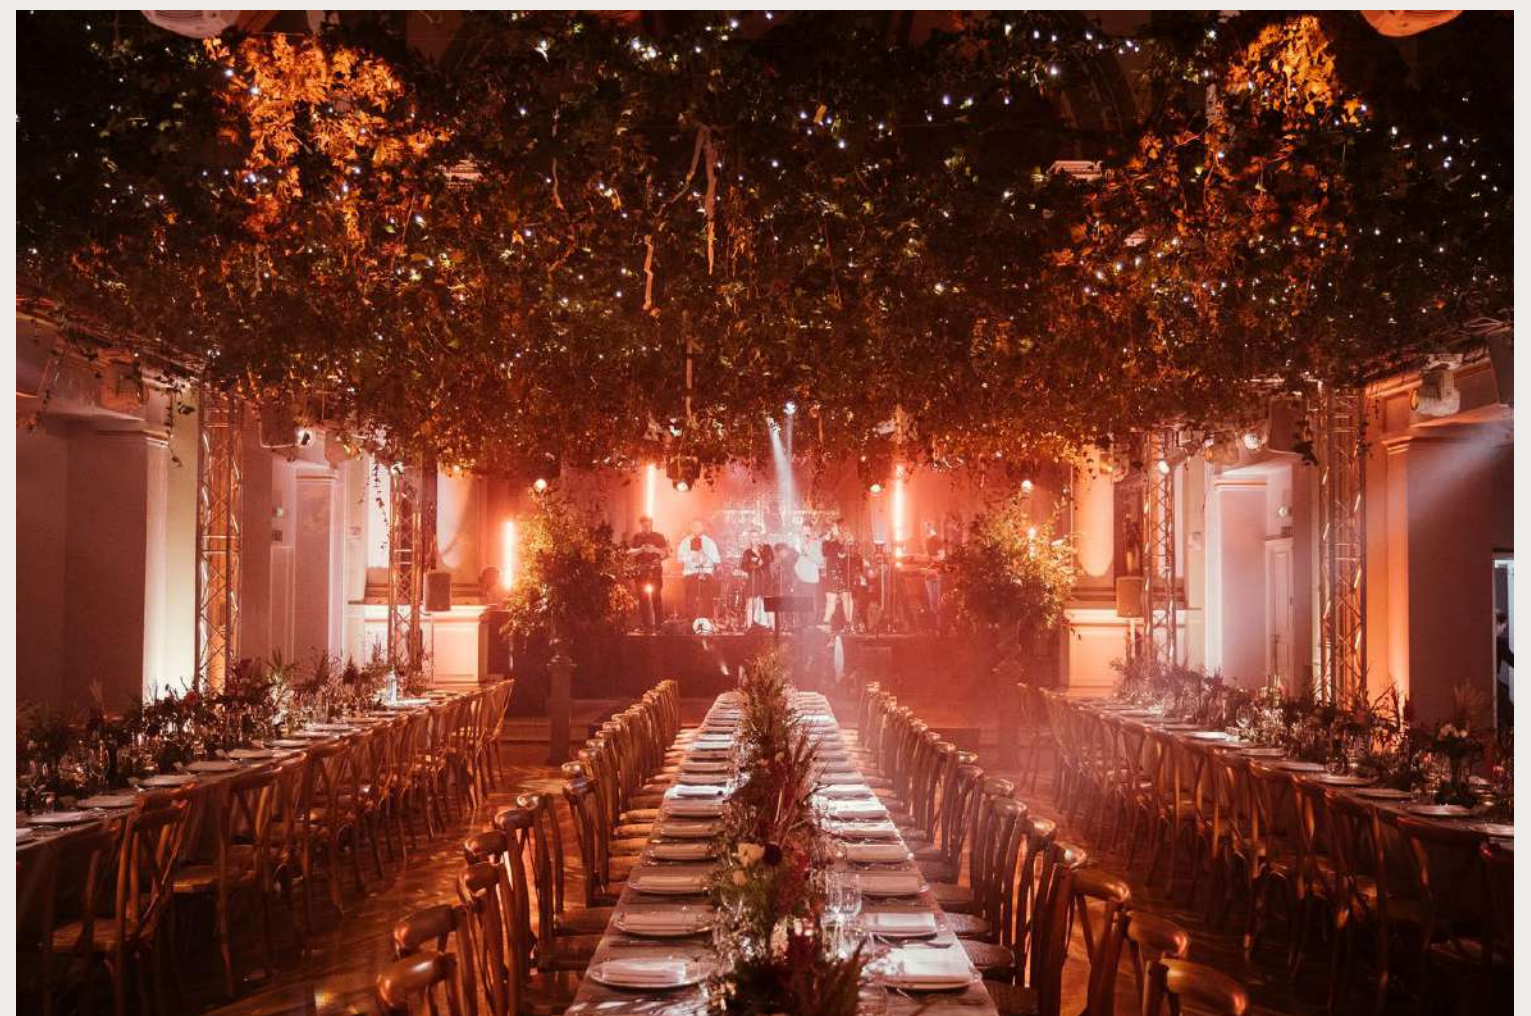

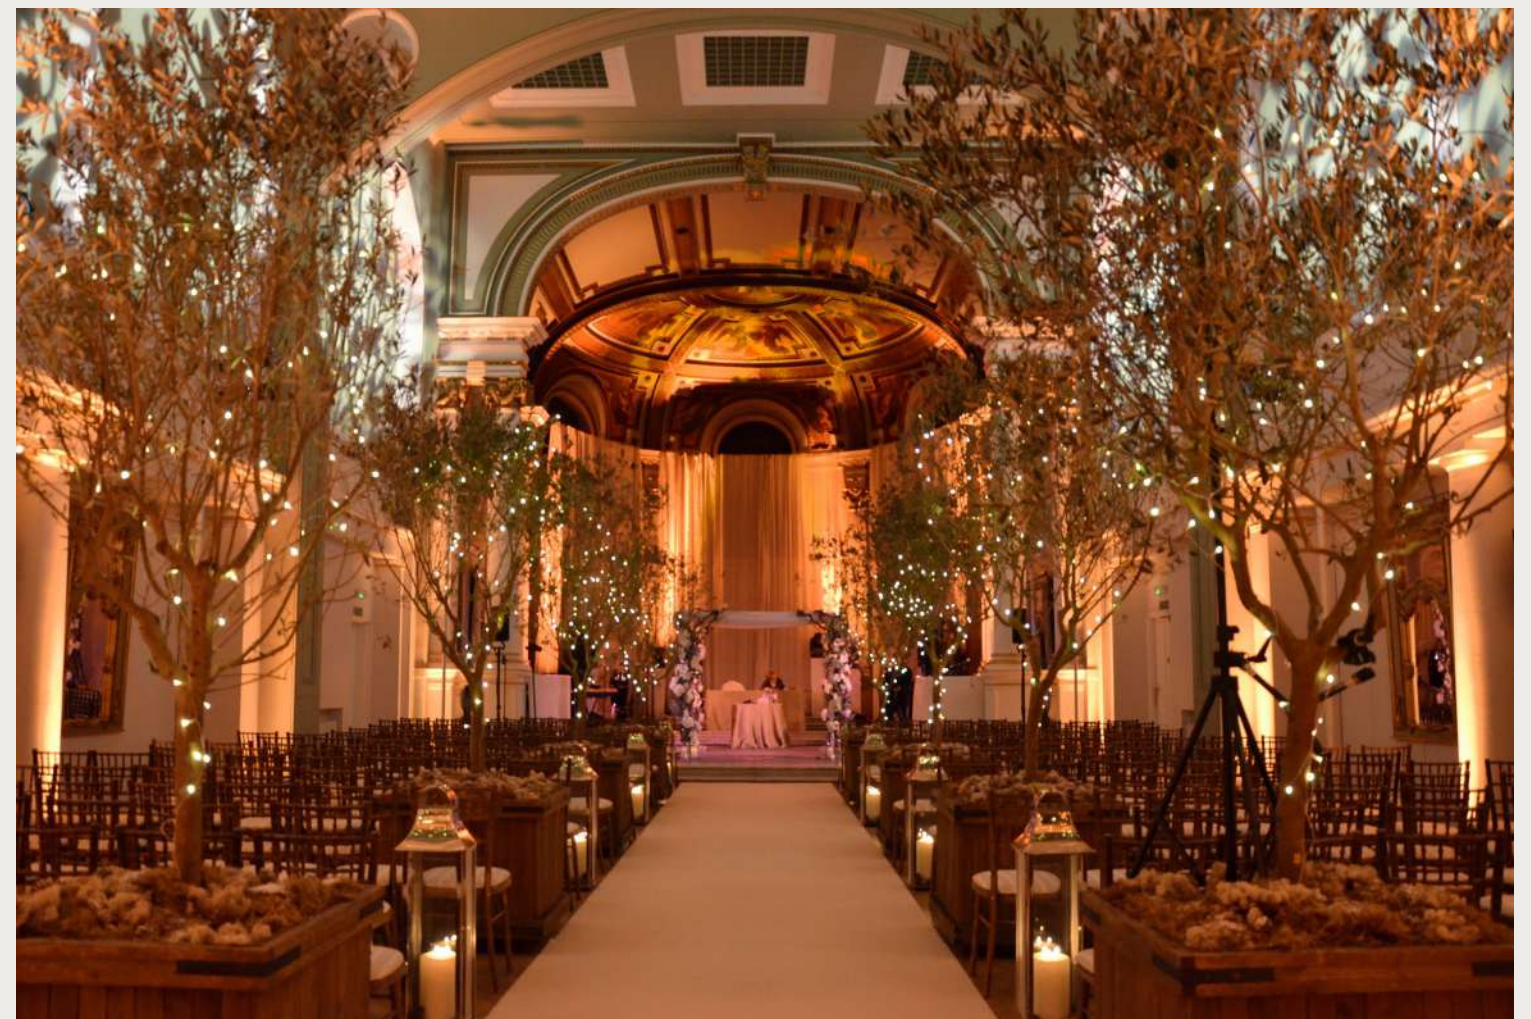

THE SOANE HALL

The Soane Hall is the grandest space at One Marylebone and one of the most breathtaking ceremony and reception venues in London.

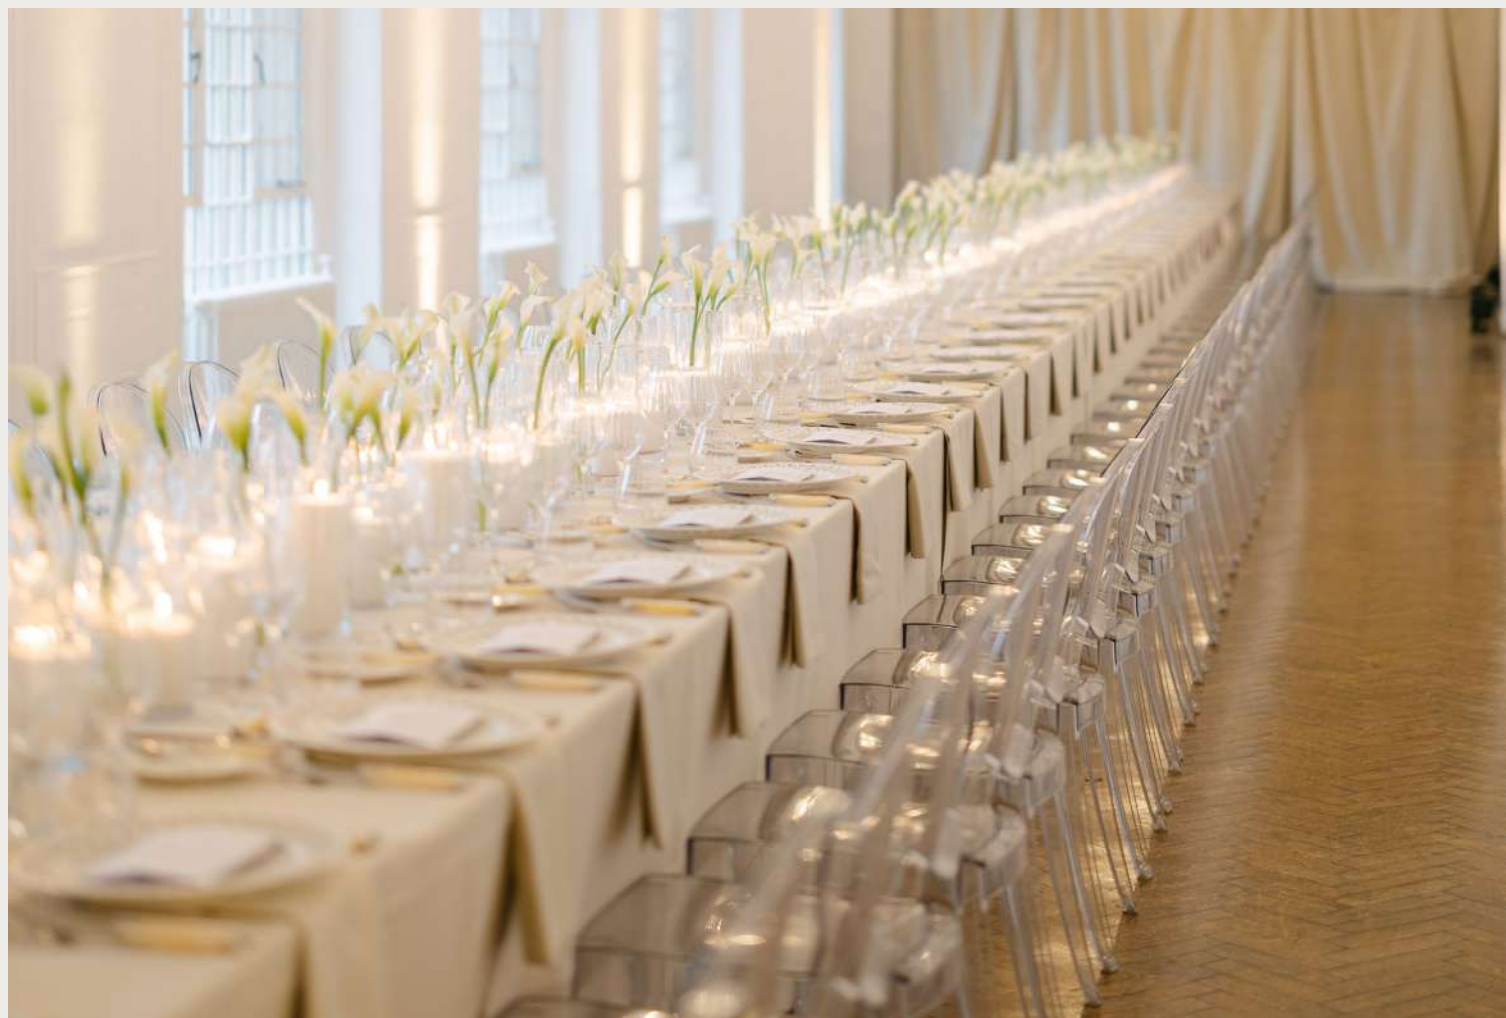

Soaring 27-foot ceilings, neoclassical columns and jewelled stained-glass windows create a setting of architectural drama.

Capacities:
Ceremony: up to 400 guests
Dinner: up to 320 guests

THE GALLERIES

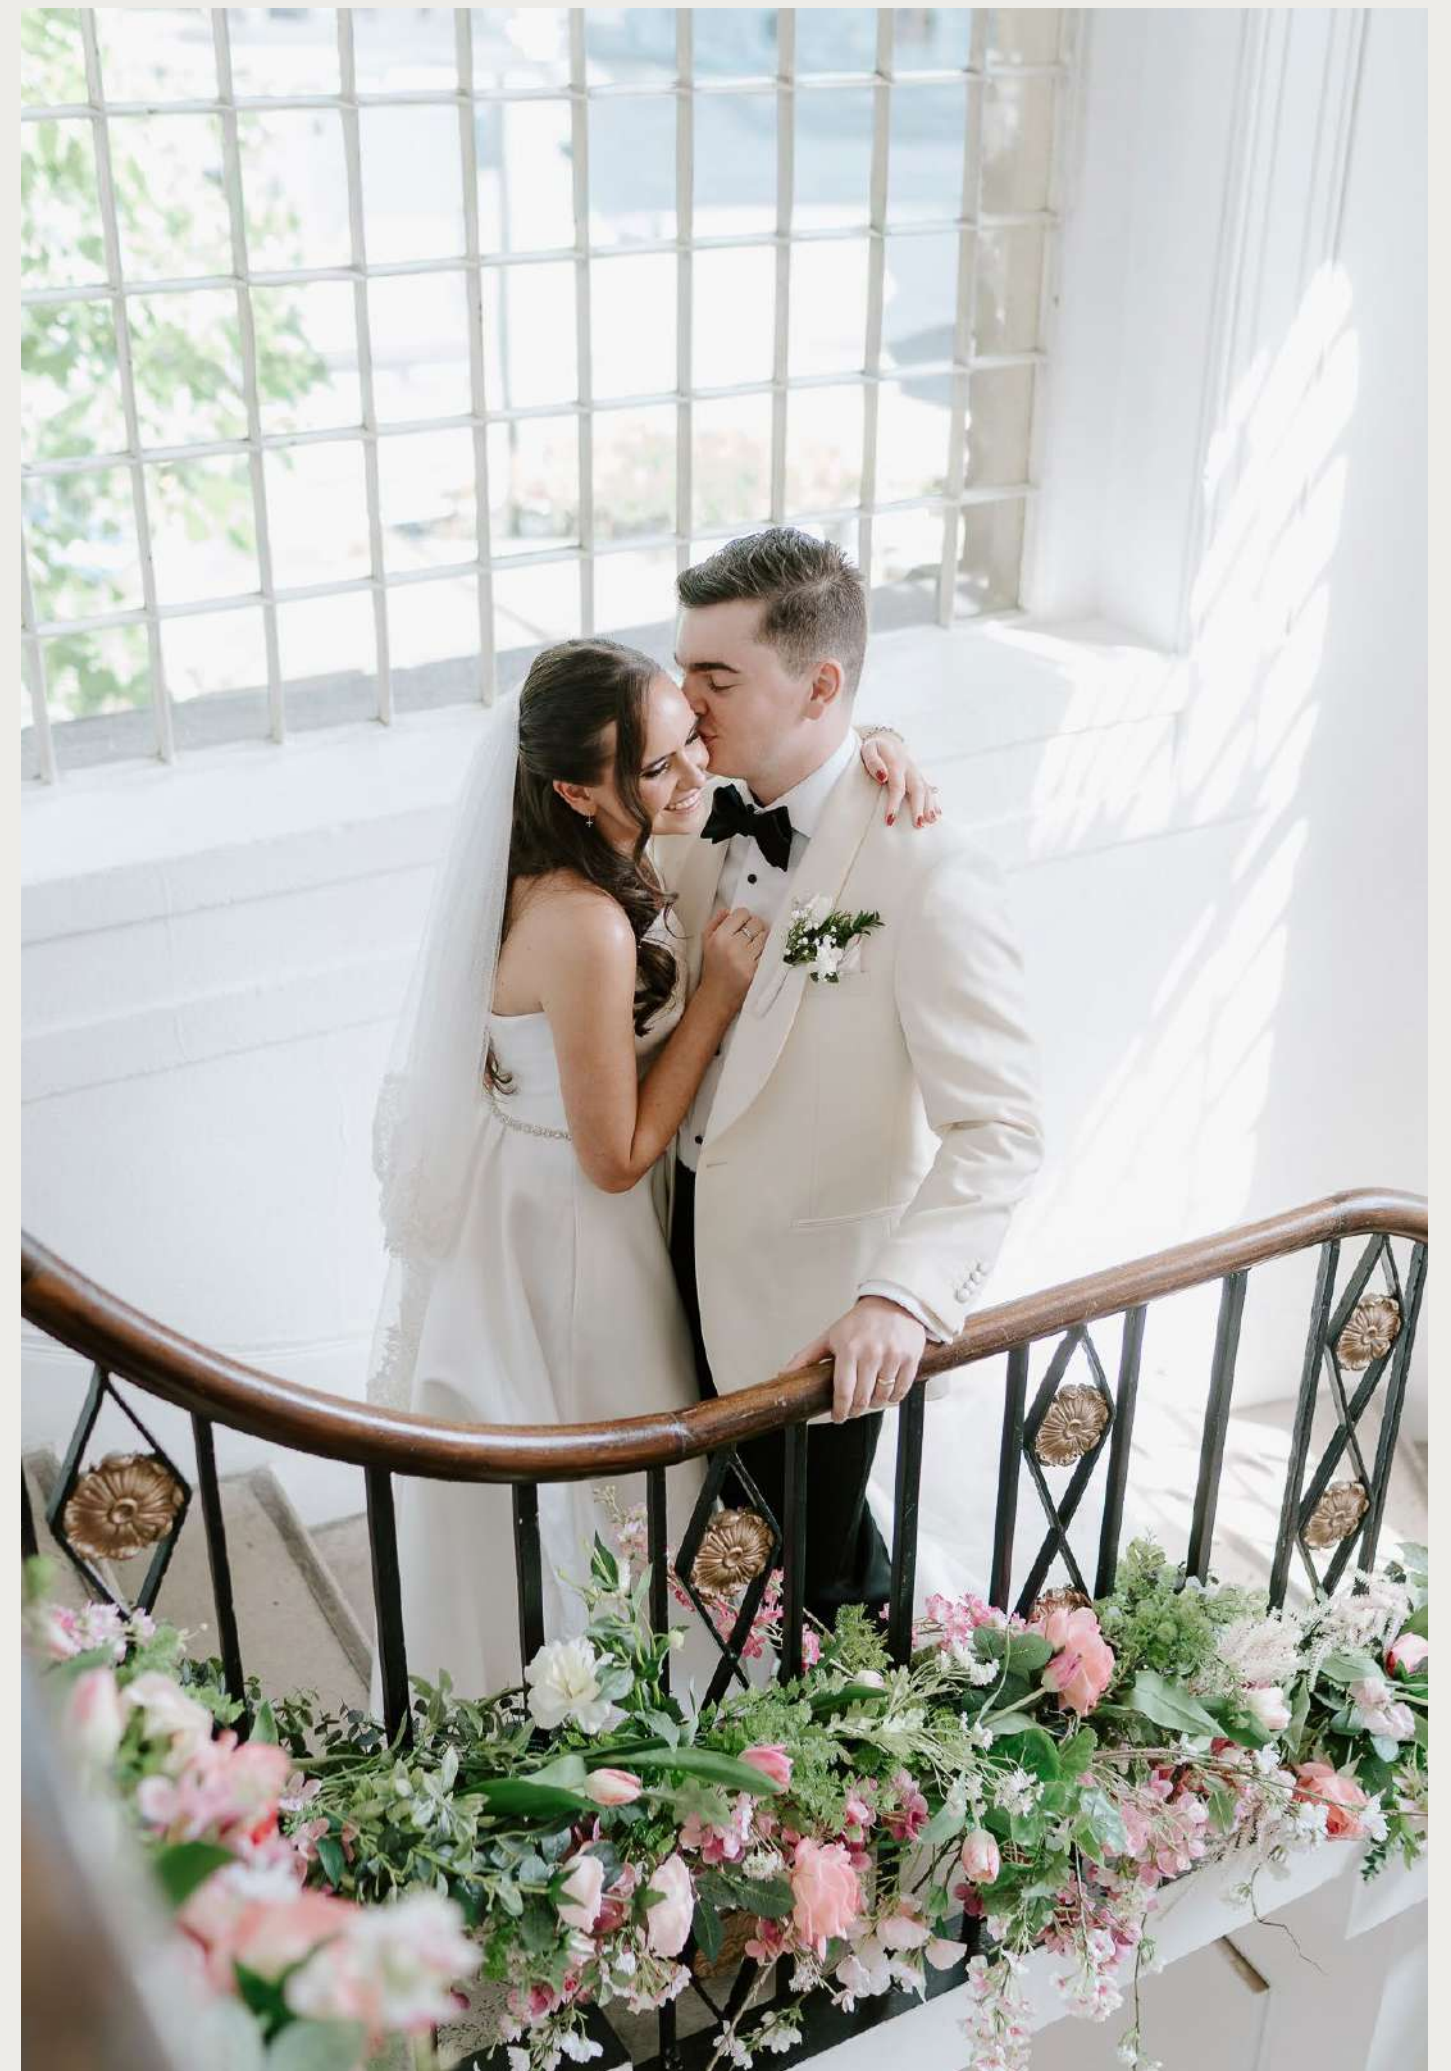

Flooded with natural daylight through floor-to-ceiling arched windows, this double-height space sits on the first floor.

Comprising of three wings, East, West and South, the Galleries work beautifully for your ceremony and dining or as a breathtaking reception area.

THE GARDEN

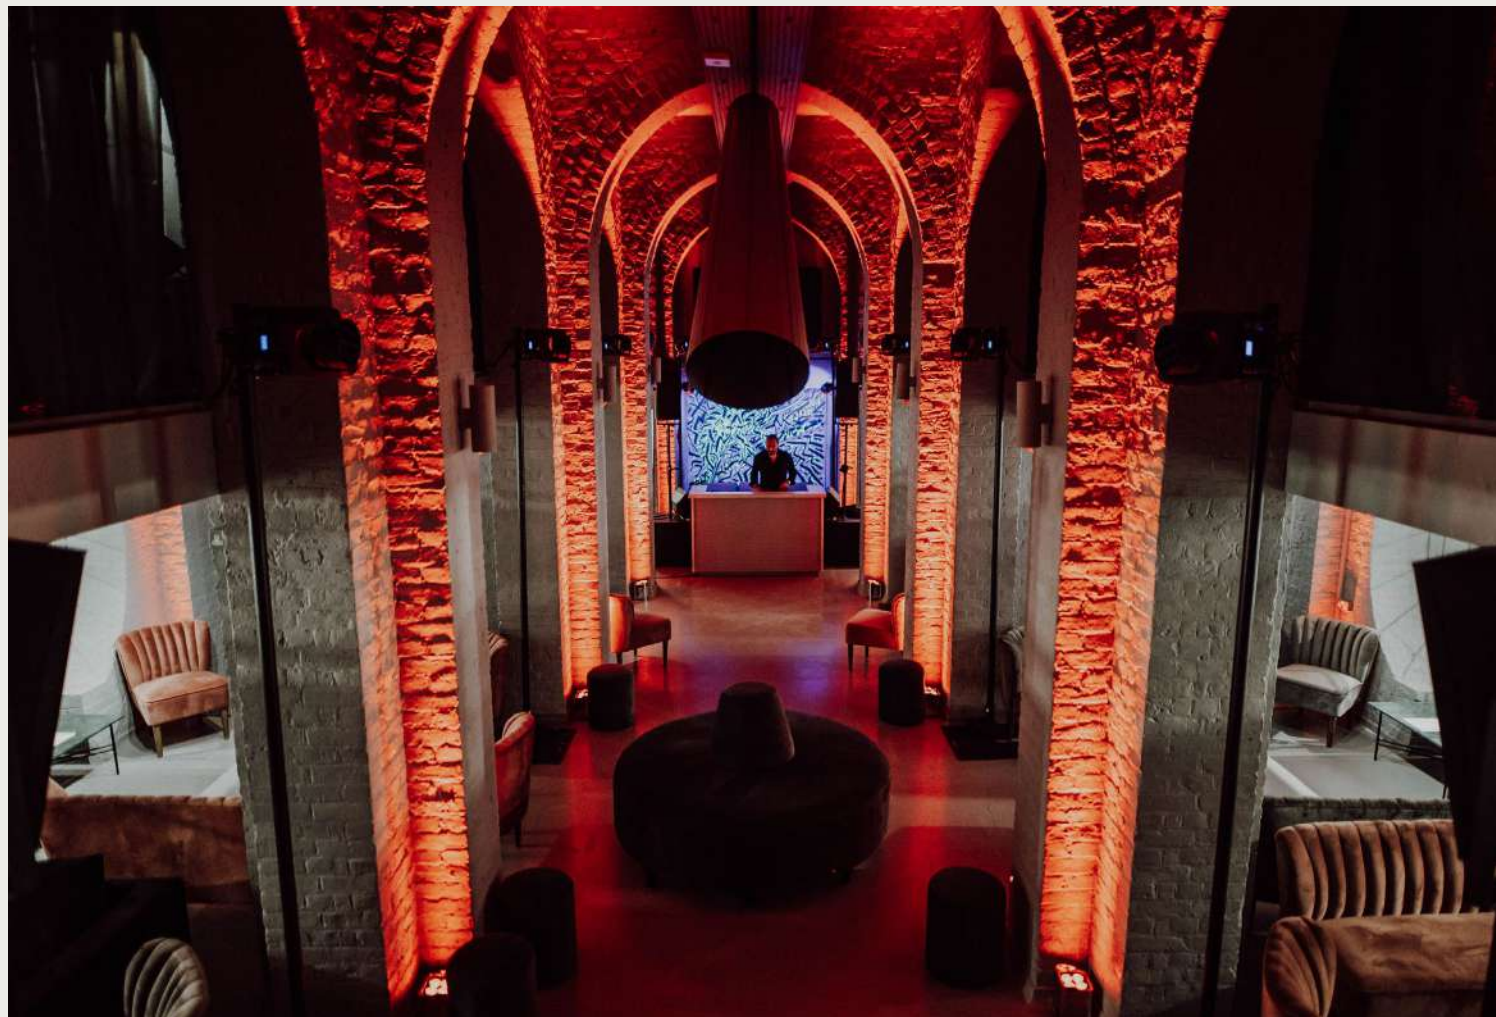

Nestled on the west side of the building, the Garden offer a generous, tranquil outdoor space that feels worlds away from the city surrounding it.

Perfect for a summer drinks reception, it comes into its own as the afternoon light softens and the evening begins. A partially covered area means the celebration carries on, whatever the weather chooses to do.
