The Library

The Library offers an exquisitely elegant setting for an intimate wedding celebration, blending the grandeur of a stately English home with a classically romantic atmosphere.

With its luxurious ambiance and inviting warmth, the room is bathed in natural light from three large sash windows. A grand mahogany bookcase, captivating oil portraits, and an original ornate fireplace add to the character and charm, creating a distinctive and unforgettable backdrop for your special day.

The Tapestry Room

A sweeping, red-carpeted staircase from Bar 190 descends into the richly atmospheric Tapestry Room, an opulent setting ideal for larger wedding celebrations or evening receptions.

Framed by two grand stone fireplaces, the room exudes romantic drama with its dark emerald walls, gilded mirrors and striking French Verdure tapestries. The space can be connected to the adjoining Mulberry Room for a more expansive affair, offering a stunning setting for an unforgettable night.

The Mulberry Room

Adjacent to the Tapestry Room sits the cosy Mulberry Room, a smaller venue yet equally as enchanting.

Exclusively available only when hosting in the Tapestry Room, the Mulberry Room is an ideal spot to hold welcome drinks or an intimate ceremony. It offers a warm and personal setting, with rich crimson velvet drapes and elegant period features that beautifully enhance the grandeur of the space next door.
