Tredudwell Manor
WEDDING VENUE
LUXURY BED & BREAKFAST

Lanteglos by Fowey, Cornwall
PL23 1NJ 01726 870226

Welcome to your Picture Perfect Wedding on the Cornwall Coast

Tredudwell Manor is a beautiful barn wedding venue on the Cornwall coast complete with a country manor house steeped in history that has been in the same family for generations.

Hidden away from the rest of the world, you are surrounded by nature, with breathtaking views stretching out to Cornwall's Heritage coastline and the blue sparkling sea beyond. Call us biased, but it truly is the perfect location for couples looking for the most romantic picture-perfect panorama to make your wedding day truly special.

Just 45 minutes from Plymouth, 2 hours from Bristol and 3 hours by train from London, Tredudwell Manor is an exquisite barn wedding venue in Cornwall complete with an 18th-century country manor house set in our own peaceful gardens and woodlands. We are surrounded by nature, with breathtaking views stretching out to Cornwall's Heritage coastline and the blue sparkling sea beyond.

We Plan Every Step With You

When you get married at Tredudwell you truly do have a bespoke wedding in Cornwall. We are completely flexible to your wishes providing all the practical planning information and support you need at every stage. From when your first visit, you receive complete one on one attention to detail and care, as we want you to have the most stress-free enjoyable wedding day.

Nothing is too much for us, that is the Tredudwell guarantee.

We're here to support you in making the decisions that will ensure your day is the one you've always been dreaming of.

The Tredudwell Manor Estate has been in the same family for more than 350 years, and we believe history is important as it gives us all a sense of purpose or responsibility. Even more important is what we do every day to make a business sustainable and carry on building strong foundations for the future. You can read more about Tredudwell's sustainability policy here.

Tucked away in Lanteglos by Fowey, surrounded by woodland, green fields and with the Cornish sea on the horizon. Tredudwell Manor is a magnificent location for your dream wedding.

Meet Your Dedicated Wedding Coordinator

Hayley is your absolutely fabulous wedding coordinator who will ensure that from the moment you step in at Tredudwell, you are very welcome. She will simply go far and beyond to make your dream day come true and will be available to communicate with you every details you would need help with. On the day, she will guarantee that every aspect is run smoothly until your catering team will take over looking after your guests for the reception and the bar team.

Visiting Tredudwell

Your first taste of Tredudwell starts with the winding country lanes, reminding you that this is quite hidden away from the rest of the world. As you head through the gates, you'll see the gorgeous 18th century manor house dating back to Queen Anne, surrounded by beautifully kept gardens, 600 acres of land and a view of the blue seas of the Cornish heritage coastline.

You can then choose to stay in our manor house luxury bed and breakfast accommodation and enjoy our infamous breakfast surrounded by incredible history and friendly hosts.

Tucked behind the history of the manor house is our barn built in keeping with the listed manor house: slate roof, Cornish stones and wood, the barn is the link between the past and the future and will give you the perfect setting to celebrate the day marking your life as a newly wed couple.

When you visit Tredudwell, you'll notice in the barn that we have a great sliding wall, perfect to divide the room for your ceremony, wedding meal (known as the breakfast) and your reception celebrations, allowing your band and DJ to set up without disturbance.

Next to our gorgeous barn for up to 220 people, we have the Roman stone temple in the garden so that you have the option of having your wedding ceremony outside. Your loved ones will be seated in a magnificent natural amphitheatre, sharing every second of your memorable day.

Your Wedding Ceremony at Tredudwell

Here at Tredudwell we are proud to offer a wealth of choices and complete flexibility. No cookie-cutter template weddings here! We simply want to offer you the most relaxed wedding experience.

You have a choice of stunning locations to get married here at Tredudwell:

Get married in a church

We are very fortunate to have two beautiful churches less than a mile from the house, St Wyllow Church at Lanteglos and Lansallos Church. Reverend Richard Allen will be more than happy to help you plan your service:

St Wyllow church dates back to the era of William the Conqueror and has kept some stunning original features.

Get married at a local registry office

After completing the legal ceremony in a registration office, should you wish to have a personal bespoke ceremony, Cornish Celebrants would be delighted to help you plan your service.

Get married at our outdoor Roman temple

You can have a beautiful ceremony outdoors in our natural amphitheatre and Roman temple with sea views and nature surrounding you. The space can take up to 220, who can sit comfortably, where everyone will be able to see everything and thanks to the PA system no one will miss a word.

Get married in our beautiful barn

If you'd prefer to be married inside, or the Cornish weather isn't kind to you on your day, then having a beautiful barn wedding ceremony is the perfect option for you. We are able to welcome up to 220 guests.

Have an intimate wedding in our manor house

For an intimate country manor house wedding, the drawing room and dining room are perfect for your intimate ceremony. Both rooms are flooded with natural light thanks to the stunning long sash windows allowing guests to enjoy the view of the gorgeous garden full of wildflowers. We are licensed to hold civil ceremonies for up to 30 guests.

Say “I Do” in a way that suits you

“Just to say a huge thank you for the most beautiful wedding day, thank you for all your help. What a beautiful venue you have, we could not fault the service you offer! You are beautiful people with such generous hearts and you should be so proud of Tredudwell, it is stunning!”

JONNY & HEATHER

Eat, Drink & Be Merry

Once you're married it really is time to celebrate with friends, family and loved ones in the barn. There's no better start to that than the magnificent steps that lead up to our wedding barn, which will allow all your guests to cheer the newlywed couple and accompany them to take their first step in married life. Sprinkle a little confetti around your celebration and dazzle the lucky guests – also great for a photo opportunity!

We have amazing recommended caterers who can cater for all your wedding wishes.

We love to work with each of the listed caterers because they each offer something different to suit a wide spectrum of taste and budget.

We also ensure that each of our recommended caterers meet these criteria:

Personalised approach to your menu complete with tasting sessions

Responsive and reliable customer service, taking excellent care of you

Mindful of local sourcing and seasonality of ingredients

Top quality food and competitive prices

Respectful of the premises

A permanent, well-trained and fabulous front of house team

Please check our page for our recommended caterers here

No Corkage Fees

To offer you the most relaxing experience, we allow you to bring your own drinks for the reception, during the wedding breakfast and for the toast! We have a very large refrigerated trailer lockable to store and chill your wines. Your dedicated team of caterers will be serving the drinks, on the terrace, under the wooden porch, on the lawn, the choice is yours!

Drinks From Our Bar

We also have the stunning stone and wooden bar, 6 metres long and with up to 5 staff who will be delighted to serve your guests. The bar is included in your wedding price and to make sure that your guests will enjoy themselves as much as possible the bar prices are very budget-friendly. Do not hesitate to enquire to receive the bar price list.

Staying Up Late

Last orders at the bar is 11.30pm-midnight. At midnight the bar will close and you will be asked to turn the music down from midnight until 1am when the Pavilion will be closed.

If you wish to stay up later, we can extend the bar licence time to 12.30-1am for last orders there will be an additional fee of £400.

FAQ

Can we get married outside at your wedding venue?

Yes! we have a gorgeous outdoor area in our gardens with a natural amphitheatre, Roman temples and beautiful views of the Cornwall coast. You can read all about outdoor wedding ceremony options here.

“Tredudwell Manor was absolutely beautiful and we couldn't have wished for a better venue! Thank you for all your help throughout the wedding planning, the day came together so perfectly. Thank you Valerie for your white wine recommendation, it's now our favourite wine! Once again thank you for everything, it truly was the best day ever!”

KIMBERLEY & TOM

Is Tredudwell available for exclusive hire?

Yes, we guarantee you have exclusive hire when you book your Cornwall wedding with us.

Do you have accommodation on-site at your wedding venue?

Yes, you are very welcome to stay with us in our luxury manor house on the night before your wedding and the night of your wedding with up to 18 guests in total.

Does it matter that we live out of county?

Not at all! Here at Tredudwell, we welcome couples from all over the UK and indeed all over the world! Please do have a read of our guide on how to plan your wedding if you don't live in Cornwall.

Who will be the point of contact in the lead-up to the wedding?

Our dedicated wedding coordinator, Hayley will be your point of contact here at Tredudwell. You can find out more about her and the rest of our team here.

Do I have to use your recommended suppliers?

You have free rein to choose your wedding suppliers for photography, videography, clothing, flowers, decor, and styling. We only ask that you book one of our recommended caterers. We will provide you with a list of wonderful wedding suppliers who we love to recommend.

Are there any wedding décor restrictions?

We are very flexible, so there are pretty much no restrictions on how you decorate for your Cornwall wedding, except nothing stuck to the walls (like blu tack) or any naked flames (e.g. Chinese lanterns, candles in jars)

Can we bring our own alcohol? Do you charge a corkage fee?

We do not charge a corkage fee for up to one reception drink, ½ bottle of wine on the table, and a toast drink per wedding guest. On top of that, all alcohol must be purchased at our in-house bar.

If you have any other questions, please do get in touch with us.

We are also fortunate to have some lovely accommodation venues nearby, that means up to 150 guests can be accommodated within a 10 minute drive of Tredudwell.

“We got married at Tredudwell in April 2023 and cannot recommend them enough. From going to visit for the first time, to our wedding day, and everything in the middle, Tredudwell were an absolute DREAM! The venue is beyond stunning and everyone who works there (Valerie, Justin, Hayley and Becky to name a few) were so welcoming and easy to talk to - nothing felt like too much trouble and everyone was so willing to go above and beyond to help bring our wedding visions to life! They definitely helped us to feel at ease on our wedding day. Tredudwell really was the venue I dreamt of as a little girl, it's perfect. Myself and my husband would go back just to visit in a heartbeat. We cannot thank Tredudwell and everyone at this beautiful venue enough for helping to make our dream wedding a reality - if you're thinking of taking a look at this venue, do it!
