CLEARWELL CASTLE

Making Wedding Day Dreams Come True...

A magnificent castle backdrop for your fairytale wedding. Hand-picked by Country House Weddings for both its grandeur and graceful interiors, Clearwell Castle makes the perfect venue for an enchanting day.

The family-run team of experts has over 30 years of wedding experience to help guide you and create your perfect event. Exclusively yours, it will soon feel like home, so relax and enjoy as the magic unfolds.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

A fairy-tale wedding venue, Clearwell Castle as it is known today was built in the early 1700s, with some of the original building from the 1400s being used to create the impressive fortified manor house that exists today.

Set within 20 acres of spectacular grounds, the journey up to the venue is as impressive as the castle itself. A sweeping tree-lined drive leads to a magnificent Portcullis, perfect for a photo opportunity with the castle turrets in the background. From there, take a short drive along the manicured grounds and be greeted by stately front steps up to the historical entrance.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

With stunning Gothic features, the castle exudes beauty and grandeur while offering all the comforts that a country manor house benefit from. From roaring log fires and grand reception rooms to well-stocked bars and spacious accommodation.

Nestled in the Forest of Dean, in the tiny village of Clearwell, the venue is conveniently located only 45 minutes from Bristol, Cheltenham and Gloucester, making it the ideal retreat for couples and their guests.

THE CEREMONY

A breathtaking Ballroom or a picturesque Bandstand in the grounds, each of the ceremony options has its own charm and beauty. If you want to make an entrance, the 75-foot-long aisle of the Ballroom with its Church-like feel, would be your first choice. There is an abundance of light streaming through the leaded lancet windows, gorgeous hardwood floors, and a raised dais creating a stage for you to sign the register after your nuptials. On sunnier days, the Bandstand is an idyllic outside ceremony option, with the castle acting as the perfect backdrop.

THE CEREMONY

The Ballroom is a showstopping ceremony room. Make your entrance from The Great Hall and walk the long aisle towards the raised dais to say your vows under the period-feature arch.

For couples seeking that idyllic outside ceremony, the Bandstand offers an unforgettable location for you to tie the knot, surrounded by gorgeous gardens and woodland.

THE RECEPTION

After your ceremony, your celebrations truly begin, as your reception will see your guests relax in the castle and enjoy a cocktail or two. Your wedding breakfast marks the start of emotional speeches and a delicious three-course meal in the Ballroom. Many of your evening reception memories will be made in the Cellar Bar & Disco, from your first dance as newlyweds to those propping up the bar and nodding their heads as the in-house DJ sets the mood. You have exclusive use of the entire venue to enjoy well into the night.

THE RECEPTION

Breathtaking high ceilings and marble pillars adorn the Ballroom, making it a fabulous setting for your wedding breakfast. With seating for up to 150, guests will enjoy a delectable meal, while the Cocktail Bar ensures your guests are never too far from a tasty tipple.

During summer months, guests can enjoy drinks on the terrace and croquet on the lawn. Children will adore playing hide and seek amongst the trees. At night, the castle is truly impressive illuminated under the glow of fireworks.

A short stroll from the castle, The Wyndham Main House has eight en-suite bedrooms and an additional 16 bedrooms in the adjacent Barn & Lodge, all of which can be taken either as part of the Night Before package, for the night of your wedding, or as part of the Day After package.

Our very own country inn, The Wyndham, has a fully stocked bar as well as private dining facilities. You can lay on a three-course meal or a buffet for your guests, with a menu designed by the Chefs to suit your requirements.

THE HISTORY OF CLEARWELL CASTLE

Hidden away in the Forest of Dean, Clearwell Castle is one of the earliest examples of a neo-gothic mansion in England. Whilst the existing building was built circa 1727 for the Wyndham family, parts of the house including the beautiful ballroom are part of an older building dating back to the early 1600s. The proprietor during this period time was Sir Nicholas Throckmorton - an English diplomat and politician, who was an ambassador to France at the time of queen Elizabeth I. It was while the Throckmortons were resident at the Castle that Sir Walter Raleigh was rumored to have courted Beth Throckmorton – a great romantic scandal of its time.

Over the centuries Clearwell Castle has withstood the ravages of time – the fire, the ruination and even the rock bands. During the 1970s several famous rock groups including Badfinger, Deep Purple, Led Zeppelin and Queen recorded albums in what is now the Cellar Bar – its vaulted ceilings giving perfect acoustics. Wedding guests that have been lucky enough to stay in our Mermaid Suite can boast about having shared the same room as none other than Freddie Mercury. Nowadays the sound of laughter and music fill the air once again with married couples and their wedding guests enjoying the pleasures of the Castle.
