AT QUEEN MARY

WELCOME

Nestled in the heart of east London, Weddings at Queen Mary offers extraordinary venues in a very unique setting. Dating back to 1887 our Victorian People's Palace of delight was designed as a place for the community to come together in the concert hall, the reading rooms and the picture galleries.

Today our magnificent venues are available to hire as the backdrop to one of the most important days you'll remember forever. Breathtakingly romantic, our Grade II listed spaces offer peace and opulence allowing unrivalled opportunities for photography and videography on your special day.

Our experienced and dedicated team will offer you support throughout the essential planning stages and ensure that your wedding day is everything that you dream of, and more.

THE OCTAGON

The Octagon can accommodate ceremonies for up to 240 guests.

This stunning venue was built in 1888 and was originally the Queen Mary library, designed by Victorian architect ER Robson and inspired by the Reading Room at the British Museum.

The domed ceiling reaches an impressive three storeys high and busts of famous literati surround the dome including Shakespeare, Wordsworth and Chaucer to name a few.
